To designate the week of March 4, 1984, through March 10, 1984, as "National Beta Club Week".

Whereas the Beta Club recognizes those high school students who have displayed outstanding qualities of leadership and the highest standards of honesty, achievement, and service to others;

Joint Resolution

Designating March 6, 1984, as "Frozen Food Day".

Mar. 5, 1984
[S.J. Res. 193]

Whereas the United States of America is blessed with an impressive array of agricultural products that make the food production and distribution system of the Nation the envy of the world;

Whereas throughout history one of the primary goals of human effort has been the production of food;

Whereas the farm-to-city migration created a great demand for food supplies in dense population centers in which such supplies could not be grown;

Whereas the international frozen food industry started in the United States with vegetables, fruit, meat, and fish being first packaged and offered to consumers in 1930;

Whereas between 1935 and 1940 frozen foods were provided to the public on a large scale, and during World War II ration point values posted in stores and carried in newspapers focused public attention on frozen foods;

Whereas frozen food became a meaningful part of the space age when Apollo XII astronauts took frozen meals on board and seventy-two frozen food items were stored on skylab for a five-hundred-day supply of meals for the crew;

Whereas the American frozen food industry has worked closely with producers and has continued research and development for the purpose of seeking better ways to bring the nutrition, quality, and taste of American agricultural products to the American consumer; and

Whereas in March 1984 the frozen food industry in the United States will celebrate the fifty-fourth year of service to the American people and the people of the world: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in recognition of the significant contribution which the frozen food industry in the United States has made and continues to make to the nutritional well-being of the American people by enabling them to share in the agricultural abundance of the Nation, March 6, 1984, is hereby designated as "Frozen Food Day". The President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe such day with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

Joint Resolution

Designating the week beginning March 4, 1984, as "Women's History Week".

Mar. 5, 1984
[H.J. Res. 422]

Whereas American women of every race, class, and ethnic background have made historical contributions to the growth and strength of the Nation in countless recorded and unrecorded ways; Whereas American women have played and continue to play a critical economic, cultural, and social role in every sphere of our Nation's life by constituting a significant portion of the labor force working in and outside of the home;

Whereas American women have played a unique role throughout our history by providing the majority of the Nation's volunteer labor force and have been particularly important in the establishment of early charitable philanthropic and cultural institutions in this country;

Whereas American women of every race, class, and ethnic background served as early leaders in the forefront of every major progressive social change movement, not only to secure their own right of suffrage and equal opportunity, but also in the abolitionist movement, the emancipation movement, the industrial labor movement, the peace movement, and the modern civil rights movement;

Whereas, despite these contributions, the role of American women in history has been consistently overlooked and undervalued in the body of American history: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the week beginning March 4, 1984, is designated as "Women's History Week", and the President is requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe such week with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

Whereas many Americans have devoted much time and energy for advancing the cause of theatre; and

Whereas the theatres of America have pioneered the way for many performers and have given them their start in vaudeville and stage; and

Whereas theatre is brought to Americans through high schools, colleges, and community theatre groups as well as through professional acting companies; and

Whereas citizens of America have been called upon to support the theatre arts in the Nation's interest; and

Whereas many individuals and organizations are hailing the strength and vitality of the theatres of America: Now, therefore, be it

[S.J. Res. 161]

To designate the month of April 1984, as "National Child Abuse Prevention Month".

Whereas the incidence and prevalence of child abuse and neglect have reached alarming proportions in the United States;

Whereas an estimated two million children become victims of child abuse in this Nation each year;

Whereas an estimated two thousand of these children die as a result of such abuse each year;

Whereas the Nation faces a continuing need to support innovative programs to prevent child abuse and assist parents and family members in which child abuse occurs;

Whereas Congress has expressed its commitment to seeking and applying solutions to this problem by enacting the Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act of 1974;

Whereas many dedicated individuals and private organizations, including the National Exchange Club Foundation for the Prevention of Child Abuse, Parents Anonymous, the National Committee for the Prevention of Child Abuse, American Humane Association, and other members of the National Child Abuse Coalition, are working to counter the ravages of abuse and neglect to help child abusers break this destructive pattern of behavior;

Whereas the average cost for a public welfare agency to serve a family through a child abuse program is twenty times greater than self-help programs administered by private organizations;

Whereas organizations, such as the National Exchange Club Foundation for the Prevention of Child Abuse, Parents Anonymous and other members of the National Child Abuse Coalition are expediting efforts to prevent child abuse in the next generation through special programs for abused children; and

Whereas it is appropriate to focus the attention of the Nation upon the problem of child abuse: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the month of April 1984, is designated as "National Child Abuse Prevention Month" and the President of the United States is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon all Government agencies and the people of the United States to observe the month with appropriate programs, ceremonies, and activities.

To proclaim the month of March 1984, as "National Social Work Month".

Mar. 14, 1984

[S.J. Res. 112]

Whereas a productive and rewarding life for all of our citizens is a major goal of our Nation; and
Whereas for millions of people in our society adverse economic and social conditions create severe stresses and an inability to cope with life situations; and
Whereas countless numbers of Americans through accidents, birth, or illness develop physical, emotional, and mental impairments; and
Whereas professional social workers are advocates for sound and humane public policies and services; and
Whereas professional social workers are in the vanguard of the forces working to provide protection for children and the aged, the reduction of racism and sexism and the prevention of the social and emotional disintegration of individuals and families; and
Whereas professional social workers constitute the largest group of professionals engaged in the treatment and recovery of those individuals who have become emotionally and mentally ill; and
Whereas in recognition of professional social workers continuing efforts to provide the opportunities for a life of accomplishment, dignity, and purpose for all people: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation designating the month of March 1984, as "National Social Work Month", and calling upon the people of the United States to observe the month with appropriate programs, ceremonies, and activities.

[S.J. Res. 225]

Designating the month of March 1984 as "National Eye Donor Month".

Whereas one million four hundred thousand Americans suffer from serious disorders of the eye, many of which can be eased by the efforts of eyebanks;

Whereas eyebanks in the United States have grown from a single institution in 1944 to ninety-three in 1984;

Whereas eyebanks have sought to encourage research into the prevention and treatment of eye disease and injury in the United States;

Whereas some one hundred and fifty thousand Americans have had their vision restored and twenty-two thousand to twenty-five thousand such operations are performed annually in the United States; and

Whereas increased national awareness of the benefits of eye donations has lent impetus to expanded research activities, and helps Americans affected by blinding diseases: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the month of March 1984, is designated as "National Eye Donor Month", and the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling on all citizens to join in recognizing this humanitarian cause with appropriate activity.

Joint Resolution

Authorizing and requesting the President to designate the second full week in March 1984 as "National Employ the Older Worker Week".

Mar. 16, 1984
[S.J. Res. 205]

Whereas individuals aged fifty-five and over are a major national resource, constitute 22 per centum of the population of the United States at the present time, and are likely to constitute a larger percentage of the population in future decades;

Whereas a growing number of such individuals, being willing and able to work, are looking for employment opportunities, want to remain in the work force, or would like to serve their communities and their Nation in voluntary roles;

Whereas such individuals, who have made continuing contributions to the national welfare, should be encouraged to remain in, or resume, career and voluntary roles that utilize their strengths, wisdom, and skills;

Whereas career opportunities reaffirm the dignity, self-worth, and independence of older individuals by encouraging them to make decisions and to act upon those decisions, by tapping their resources, experience, and knowledge, and by enabling them to contribute to society;

Whereas the operation of title V of the Older Americans Act of 1965 has demonstrated that older workers are extremely capable in a wide variety of job roles;

42 USC 3041.

Whereas recent studies conducted by the United States Department of Labor and the Work in America Institute indicate that, in many cases, employers prefer to retain older workers or rehire former older employees due to the high quality of their job performance and their low rate of absenteeism; and

Whereas the American Legion has sponsored a "National Employ the Older Worker Week" during the second full week of March in every year since 1959, focusing public attention on the advantages of employing older individuals: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President is authorized and requested to designate the second full week in March 1984 as "National Employ the Older Worker Week", and to issue a proclamation calling upon—

(1) the employers and labor unions of the United States to give special consideration to older workers, with a view toward expanding career and employment opportunities for older workers who are willing and able to work and who desire to remain employed or to reenter the work force;

(2) voluntary organizations to reexamine the many fine service programs which they sponsor with a view toward expanding both the number of older volunteers and the types of service roles open to older workers;

The Commission shall thereafter, upon complaint filed within 2 years of the date of the agreement, disapprove, cancel, or modify any such agreement, or charge or assessment pursuant thereto, that it finds, after notice and hearing, to be unjustly discriminatory or unfair as between carriers, shippers, or ports. The Commission shall issue its final decision in any such proceeding within 1 year of the date of filing of the complaint. To the extent that an assessment or charge is found in the proceeding to be unjustly discriminatory or unfair as between carriers, shippers, or ports, the Commission shall remedy the unjust discrimination or unfairness for the period of time between the filing of the complaint and the final decision by means of assessment adjustments. These adjustments shall be implemented by prospective credits or debits to future assessments or charges, except in the case of a complainant who has ceased activities subject to the assessment or charge, in which case reparation may be awarded. Except for this subsection and section 7(a) of this Act, this Act, the Shipping Act, 1916, and the Intercoastal Shipping Act, 1933, do not apply to assessment agreements.

(e) MARITIME LABOR AGREEMENTS.—This Act, the Shipping Act, 1916, and the Intercoastal Shipping Act, 1933, do not apply to maritime labor agreements. This subsection does not exempt from this Act, the Shipping Act, 1916, or the Intercoastal Shipping Act, 1933, any rates, charges, regulations, or practices of a common carrier that are required to be set forth in a tariff, whether or not those rates, charges, regulations, or practices arise out of, or are otherwise related to, a maritime labor agreement.

SEC. 6. ACTION ON AGREEMENTS.

(a) NOTICE.—Within 7 days after an agreement is filed, the Commission shall transmit a notice of its filing to the Federal Register for publication.

(b) REVIEW STANDARD.—The Commission shall reject any agreement filed under section 5(a) of this Act that, after preliminary review, it finds does not meet the requirements of section 5. The Commission shall notify in writing the person filing the agreement of the reason for rejection of the agreement.

(c) REVIEW AND EFFECTIVE DATE.—Unless rejected by the Commission under subsection (b), agreements, other than assessment agreements, shall become effective—

(1) on the 45th day after filing, or on the 30th day after notice of the filing is published in the Federal Register, whichever day is later; or

(2) if additional information or documentary material is requested under subsection (d), on the 45th day after the Commission receives—

(A) all the additional information and documentary material requested; or

(B) if the request is not fully complied with, the information and documentary material submitted and a statement of the reasons for noncompliance with the request. The period specified in paragraph (2) may be extended only by the United States District Court for the District of Columbia upon an application of the Commission under subsection (i).

(d) ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.—Before the expiration of the period specified in subsection (c)(1), the Commission may request from the person filing the agreement any additional information and documentary material it deems necessary to make the determinations required by this section.

(e) REQUEST FOR EXPEDITED APPROVAL.—The Commission may, upon request of the filing party, shorten the review period specified in subsection (c), but in no event to a date less than 14 days after notice of the filing of the agreement is published in the Federal Register.

(f) TERM OF AGREEMENTS.—The Commission may not limit the effectiveness of an agreement to a fixed term.

(g) SUBSTANTIALLY ANTICOMPETITIVE AGREEMENTS.—If, at any time after the filing or effective date of an agreement, the Commission determines that the agreement is likely, by a reduction in competition, to produce an unreasonable reduction in transportation service or an unreasonable increase in transportation cost, it may, after notice to the person filing the agreement, seek appropriate injunctive relief under subsection (h).

(h) INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.—The Commission may, upon making the determination specified in subsection (g), bring suit in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia to enjoin operation of the agreement. The court may issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction and, upon a showing that the agreement is likely, by a reduction in competition, to produce an unreasonable reduction in transportation service or an unreasonable increase in transportation cost, may enter a permanent injunction. In a suit under this subsection, the burden of proof is on the Commission. The court may not allow a third party to intervene with respect to a claim under this subsection.

(i) COMPLIANCE WITH INFORMATIONAL NEEDS.—If a person filing an agreement, or an officer, director, partner, agent, or employee thereof, fails substantially to comply with a request for the submission of additional information or documentary material within the period specified in subsection (c), the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, at the request of the Commission—

(1) may order compliance;

(2) shall extend the period specified in subsection (c)(2) until there has been substantial compliance; and

(3) may grant such other equitable relief as the court in its discretion determines necessary or appropriate.

(j) NONDISCLOSURE OF SUBMITTED MATERIAL.—Except for an agreement filed under section 5 of this Act, information and documentary material filed with the Commission under section 5 or 6 is exempt from disclosure under section 552 of title 5, United States Code and may not be made public except as may be relevant to an administrative or judicial action or proceeding. This section does not prevent disclosure to either body of Congress or to a duly authorized committee or subcommittee of Congress.

(k) REPRESENTATION.—Upon notice to the Attorney General, the Commission may represent itself in district court proceedings under subsections (h) and (i) of this section and section 11(h) of this Act. With the approval of the Attorney General, the Commission may represent itself in proceedings in the United States Courts of Appeal under subsections (h) and (i) of this section and section 11(h) of this Act.

SEC. 7. EXEMPTION FROM ANTITRUST LAWS.

46 USC app.
1706.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The antitrust laws do not apply to—

(1) any agreement that has been filed under section 5 of this Act and is effective under section 5(d) or section 6, or is exempt under section 16 of this Act from any requirement of this Act;

(2) any activity or agreement within the scope of this Act, whether permitted under or prohibited by this Act, undertaken or entered into with a reasonable basis to conclude that (A) it is pursuant to an agreement on file with the Commission and in effect when the activity took place, or (B) it is exempt under section 16 of this Act from any filing requirement of this Act;

(3) any agreement or activity that relates to transportation services within or between foreign countries, whether or not via the United States, unless that agreement or activity has a direct, substantial, and reasonably foreseeable effect on the commerce of the United States;

(4) any agreement or activity concerning the foreign inland segment of through transportation that is part of transportation provided in a United States import or export trade;

(5) any agreement or activity to provide or furnish wharfage, dock, warehouse, or other terminal facilities outside the United States; or

(6) subject to section 20(e)(2) of this Act, any agreement, modification, or cancellation approved by the Commission before the effective date of this Act under section 15 of the Shipping Act, 1916, or permitted under section 14b thereof, and any properly published tariff, rate, fare, or charge, classification, rule, or regulation explanatory thereof implementing that agreement, modification, or cancellation.

97 Stat. 500.

(b) EXCEPTIONS.—This Act does not extend antitrust immunity—

(1) to any agreement with or among air carriers, rail carriers, motor carriers, or common carriers by water not subject to this Act with respect to transportation within the United States;

(2) to any discussion or agreement among common carriers that are subject to this Act regarding the inland divisions (as opposed to the inland portions) of through rates within the United States; or

(3) to any agreement among common carriers subject to this Act to establish, operate, or maintain a marine terminal in the United States.

(c) LIMITATIONS.—(1) Any determination by an agency or court that results in the denial or removal of the immunity to the antitrust laws set forth in subsection (a) shall not remove or alter the antitrust immunity for the period before the determination.

(2) No person may recover damages under section 4 of the Clayton Act (15 U.S.C. 15), or obtain injunctive relief under section 16 of that Act (15 U.S.C. 26), for conduct prohibited by this Act.

SEC. 8. TARIFFS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—

(1) Except with regard to bulk cargo, forest products, recycled metal scrap, waste paper, and paper waste, each common carrier and conference shall file with the Commission, and keep open to public inspection, tariffs showing all its rates, charges, classifications, rules, and practices between all points or ports on its own route and on any through transportation route that has been established. However, common carriers shall not be required to state separately or otherwise reveal in tariff filings the inland divisions of a through rate. Tariffs shall—

(A) state the places between which cargo will be carried;

(B) list each classification of cargo in use;

(C) state the level of ocean freight forwarder compensation, if any, by a carrier or conference;

(D) state separately each terminal or other charge, privilege, or facility under the control of the carrier or conference and any rules or regulations that in any way change, affect, or determine any part or the aggregate of the rates or charges; and

(E) include sample copies of any loyalty contract, bill of lading, contract of affreightment, or other document evidencing the transportation agreement.

(2) Copies of tariffs shall be made available to any person, and a reasonable charge may be assessed for them.

(b) TIME-VOLUME RATES.—Rates shown in tariffs filed under subsection (a) may vary with the volume of cargo offered over a specified period of time.

(c) SERVICE CONTRACTS.—An ocean common carrier or conference may enter into a service contract with a shipper or shippers' association subject to the requirements of this Act. Except for service contracts dealing with bulk cargo, forest products, recycled metal scrap, waste paper, or paper waste, each contract entered into under this subsection shall be filed confidentially with the Commission, and at the same time, a concise statement of its essential terms shall be filed with the Commission and made available to the general public in tariff format, and those essential terms shall be available to all shippers similarly situated. The essential terms shall include—

Confidentiality.
Public
availability.

- (1) the origin and destination port ranges in the case of port-to-port movements, and the origin and destination geographic areas in the case of through intermodal movements;
- (2) the commodity or commodities involved;
- (3) the minimum volume;
- (4) the line-haul rate;
- (5) the duration;
- (6) service commitments; and
- (7) the liquidated damages for nonperformance, if any.

The exclusive remedy for a breach of a contract entered into under this subsection shall be an action in an appropriate court, unless the parties otherwise agree.

(d) RATES.—No new or initial rate or change in an existing rate that results in an increased cost to the shipper may become effective earlier than 30 days after filing with the Commission. The Commission, for good cause, may allow such a new or initial rate or change to become effective in less than 30 days. A change in an existing rate that results in a decreased cost to the shipper may become effective upon publication and filing with the Commission.

(e) REFUNDS.—The Commission may, upon application of a carrier or shipper, permit a common carrier or conference to refund a portion of freight charges collected from a shipper or to waive the collection of a portion of the charges from a shipper if—

(1) there is an error in a tariff of a clerical or administrative nature or an error due to inadvertence in failing to file a new tariff and the refund will not result in discrimination among shippers, ports, or carriers;

(2) the common carrier or conference has, prior to filing an application for authority to make a refund, filed a new tariff with the Commission that sets forth the rate on which the refund or waiver would be based;

(3) the common carrier or conference agrees that if permission is granted by the Commission, an appropriate notice will be published in the tariff, or such other steps taken as the Commission may require that give notice of the rate on which the refund or waiver would be based, and additional refunds or waivers as appropriate shall be made with respect to other shipments in the manner prescribed by the Commission in its order approving the application; and

(4) the application for refund or waiver is filed with the Commission within 180 days from the date of shipment.

(f) FORM.—The Commission may by regulation prescribe the form and manner in which the tariffs required by this section shall be published and filed. The Commission may reject a tariff that is not filed in conformity with this section and its regulations. Upon rejection by the Commission, the tariff is void and its use is unlawful.

46 USC app.

SEC. 9. CONTROLLED CARRIERS.

(a) CONTROLLED CARRIER RATES.—No controlled carrier subject to this section may maintain rates or charges in its tariffs filed with the Commission that are below a level that is just and reasonable, nor may any such carrier establish or maintain unjust or unreasonable classifications, rules, or regulations in those tariffs. An unjust or unreasonable classification, rule, or regulation means one that results or is likely to result in the carriage or handling of cargo at rates or charges that are below a just and reasonable level. The Commission may, at any time after notice and hearing, disapprove any rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations that the controlled carrier has failed to demonstrate to be just and reasonable. In a proceeding under this subsection, the burden of proof is on the controlled carrier to demonstrate that its rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations are just and reasonable. Rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations filed by a controlled carrier that have been rejected, suspended, or disapproved by the Commission are void and their use is unlawful.

(b) RATE STANDARDS.—For the purpose of this section, in determining whether rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations by a controlled carrier are just and reasonable, the Commission may take into account appropriate factors including, but not limited to, whether—

(1) the rates or charges which have been filed or which would result from the pertinent classifications, rules, or regulations are below a level which is fully compensatory to the controlled carrier based upon that carrier's actual costs or upon its constructive costs, which are hereby defined as the costs of another carrier, other than a controlled carrier, operating similar vessels and equipment in the same or a similar trade;

(2) the rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations are the same as or similar to those filed or assessed by other carriers in the same trade;

(3) the rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations are required to assure movement of particular cargo in the trade; or

(4) the rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations are required to maintain acceptable continuity, level, or quality of common carrier service to or from affected ports.

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE OF RATES.—Notwithstanding section 8(d) of this Act, the rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations of controlled carriers may not, without special permission of the Commission, become effective sooner than the 30th day after the date of filing with the Commission. Each controlled carrier shall, upon the request of the Commission, file, within 20 days of request (with respect to its existing or proposed rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations), a statement of justification that sufficiently details the controlled carrier's need and purpose for such rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations upon which the Commission may reasonably base its determination of the lawfulness thereof.

(d) DISAPPROVAL OF RATES.—Whenever the Commission is of the opinion that the rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations filed by a controlled carrier may be unjust and unreasonable, the Commission may issue an order to the controlled carrier to show cause why those rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations should not be disapproved. Pending a determination as to their lawfulness in such a proceeding, the Commission may suspend the rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations at any time before their effective date. In the case of rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations that have already become effective, the Commission may, upon the issuance of an order to show cause, suspend those rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations on not less than 60 days' notice to the controlled carrier. No period of suspension under this subsection may be greater than 180 days. Whenever the Commission has suspended any rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations under this subsection, the affected carrier may file new rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations to take effect immediately during the suspension period in lieu of the suspended rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations—except that the Commission may reject the new rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations if it is of the opinion that they are unjust and unreasonable.

(e) PRESIDENTIAL REVIEW.—Concurrently with the publication thereof, the Commission shall transmit to the President each order of suspension or final order of disapproval of rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations of a controlled carrier subject to this section. Within 10 days after the receipt or the effective date of the Commission order, the President may request the Commission in writing to stay the effect of the Commission's order if the President finds that the stay is required for reasons of national defense or foreign policy, which reasons shall be specified in the report. Notwithstanding any other law, the Commission shall immediately grant the request by the issuance of an order in which the President's request shall be described. During any such stay, the President shall, whenever practicable, attempt to resolve the matter in controversy by negotiation with representatives of the applicable foreign governments.

(f) EXCEPTIONS.—This section does not apply to—

(1) a controlled carrier of a state whose vessels are entitled by a treaty of the United States to receive national or most-favored-nation treatment;

(2) a controlled carrier of a state which, on the effective date of this section, has subscribed to the statement of shipping policy contained in note 1 to annex A of the Code of Liberalization of Current Invisible Operations, adopted by the Council of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development;

(3) rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations of a controlled carrier in any particular trade that are covered by an agreement effective under section 6 of this Act, other than an agreement in which all of the members are controlled carriers not otherwise excluded from the provisions of this subsection;

(4) rates, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations governing the transportation of cargo by a controlled carrier between the country by whose government it is owned or controlled, as defined herein and the United States; or

(5) a trade served exclusively by controlled carriers.

SEC. 10. PROHIBITED ACTS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—No person may—

(1) knowingly and willfully, directly or indirectly, by means of false billing, false classification, false weighing, false report of weight, false measurement, or by any other unjust or unfair device or means obtain or attempt to obtain ocean transportation for property at less than the rates or charges that would otherwise be applicable;

(2) operate under an agreement required to be filed under section 5 of this Act that has not become effective under section 6, or that has been rejected, disapproved, or canceled; or

(3) operate under an agreement required to be filed under section 5 of this Act except in accordance with the terms of the agreement or any modifications made by the Commission to the agreement.

(b) COMMON CARRIERS.—No common carrier, either alone or in conjunction with any other person, directly or indirectly, may—

(1) charge, demand, collect, or receive greater, less, or different compensation for the transportation of property or for any service in connection therewith than the rates and charges that are shown in its tariffs or service contracts;

(2) rebate, refund, or remit in any manner, or by any device, any portion of its rates except in accordance with its tariffs or service contracts;

(3) extend or deny to any person any privilege, concession, equipment, or facility except in accordance with its tariffs or service contracts;

(4) allow any person to obtain transportation for property at less than the rates or charges established by the carrier in its tariff or service contract by means of false billing, false classification, false weighing, false measurement, or by any other unjust or unfair device or means;

(5) retaliate against any shipper by refusing, or threatening to refuse, cargo space accommodations when available, or resort to other unfair or unjustly discriminatory methods because the shipper has patronized another carrier, or has filed a complaint, or for any other reason;

(6) except for service contracts, engage in any unfair or unjustly discriminatory practice in the matter of—

(A) rates;

(B) cargo classifications;

(C) cargo space accommodations or other facilities, due regard being had for the proper loading of the vessel and the available tonnage;

(D) the loading and landing of freight; or

(E) the adjustment and settlement of claims;

(7) employ any fighting ship;

(8) offer or pay any deferred rebates;

(9) use a loyalty contract, except in conformity with the antitrust laws;

(10) demand, charge, or collect any rate or charge that is unjustly discriminatory between shippers or ports;

(11) except for service contracts, make or give any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any particular person, locality, or description of traffic in any respect whatsoever;

(12) subject any particular person, locality, or description of traffic to an unreasonable refusal to deal or any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever;

(13) refuse to negotiate with a shippers' association; or
(14) knowingly disclose, offer, solicit, or receive any information concerning the nature, kind, quantity, destination, consignee, or routing of any property tendered or delivered to a common carrier without the consent of the shipper or consignee if that information—

(A) may be used to the detriment or prejudice of the shipper or consignee;

(B) may improperly disclose its business transaction to a competitor; or

(C) may be used to the detriment or prejudice of any common carrier.

Nothing in paragraph (14) shall be construed to prevent providing such information, in response to legal process, to the United States, or to an independent neutral body operating within the scope of its authority to fulfill the policing obligations of the parties to an agreement effective under this Act. Nor shall it be prohibited for any ocean common carrier that is a party to a conference agreement approved under this Act, or any receiver, trustee, lessee, agent, or employee of that carrier, or any other person authorized by that carrier to receive information, to give information to the conference or any person, firm, corporation, or agency designated by the conference, or to prevent the conference or its designee from soliciting or receiving information for the purpose of determining whether a shipper or consignee has breached an agreement with the conference or its member lines or for the purpose of determining whether a member of the conference has breached the conference agreement, or for the purpose of compiling statistics of cargo movement, but the use of such information for any other purpose prohibited by this Act or any other Act is prohibited.

(c) CONCERTED ACTION.—No conference or group of two or more common carriers may—

(1) boycott or take any other concerted action resulting in an unreasonable refusal to deal;

(2) engage in conduct that unreasonably restricts the use of intermodal services or technological innovations;

(3) engage in any predatory practice designed to eliminate the participation, or deny the entry, in a particular trade of a common carrier not a member of the conference, a group of common carriers, an ocean tramp, or a bulk carrier;

(4) negotiate with a nonocean carrier or group of nonocean carriers (for example, truck, rail, or air operators) on any matter relating to rates or services provided to ocean common carriers within the United States by those nonocean carriers: Provided, That this paragraph does not prohibit the setting and publishing of a joint through rate by a conference, joint venture, or an association of ocean common carriers;

(5) deny in the export foreign commerce of the United States compensation to an ocean freight forwarder or limit that compensation to less than a reasonable amount; or

(6) allocate shippers among specific carriers that are parties to the agreement or prohibit a carrier that is a party to the agreement from soliciting cargo from a particular shipper, except as otherwise required by the law of the United States or the importing or exporting country, or as agreed to by a shipper in a service contract.

(d) COMMON CARRIERS, OCEAN FREIGHT FORWARDERS, AND MARINE TERMINAL OPERATORS.—

(1) No common carrier, ocean freight forwarder, or marine terminal operator may fail to establish, observe, and enforce just and reasonable regulations and practices relating to or connected with receiving, handling, storing, or delivering property.

(2) No marine terminal operator may agree with another marine terminal operator or with a common carrier to boycott, or unreasonably discriminate in the provision of terminal services to, any common carrier or ocean tramp.

(3) The prohibitions in subsection (b) (11), (12), and (14) of this section apply to marine terminal operators.

(e) JOINT VENTURES.—For purposes of this section, a joint venture or consortium of two or more common carriers but operated as a single entity shall be treated as a single common carrier.

46 USC app.
1710.

SEC. 11. COMPLAINTS, INVESTIGATIONS, REPORTS, AND REPARATIONS.

(a) FILING OF COMPLAINTS.—Any person may file with the Commission a sworn complaint alleging a violation of this Act, other than section 6(g), and may seek reparation for any injury caused to the complainant by that violation.

(b) SATISFACTION OR INVESTIGATION OF COMPLAINTS.—The Commission shall furnish a copy of a complaint filed pursuant to subsection (a) of this section to the person named therein who shall, within a reasonable time specified by the Commission, satisfy the complaint or answer it in writing. If the complaint is not satisfied, the Commission shall investigate it in an appropriate manner and make an appropriate order.

(c) COMMISSION INVESTIGATIONS.—The Commission, upon complaint or upon its own motion, may investigate any conduct or agreement that it believes may be in violation of this Act. Except in the case of an injunction granted under subsection (h) of this section, each agreement under investigation under this section remains in effect until the Commission issues an order under this subsection. The Commission may by order disapprove, cancel, or modify any agreement filed under section 5(a) of this Act that operates in violation of this Act. With respect to agreements inconsistent with section 6(g) of this Act, the Commission's sole remedy is under section 6(h).

(d) CONDUCT OF INVESTIGATION.—Within 10 days after the initiation of a proceeding under this section, the Commission shall set a date on or before which its final decision will be issued. This date may be extended for good cause by order of the Commission.

(e) UNDUE DELAYS.—If, within the time period specified in subsection (d), the Commission determines that it is unable to issue a final decision because of undue delays caused by a party to the proceedings, the Commission may impose sanctions, including entering a decision adverse to the delaying party.

(f) REPORTS.—The Commission shall make a written report of every investigation made under this Act in which a hearing was held stating its conclusions, decisions, findings of fact, and order. A copy of this report shall be furnished to all parties. The Commission shall publish each report for public information, and the published report shall be competent evidence in all courts of the United States.

(g) REPARATIONS.—For any complaint filed within 3 years after the cause of action accrued, the Commission shall, upon petition of the complainant and after notice and hearing, direct payment of reparations to the complainant for actual injury (which, for purposes of this subsection, also includes the loss of interest at commercial rates compounded from the date of injury) caused by a violation of this Act plus reasonable attorney's fees. Upon a showing that the injury was caused by activity that is prohibited by section 10(b) (5) or (7) or section 10(c) (1) or (4) of this Act, or that violates section 10(a) (2) or (3), the Commission may direct the payment of additional amounts; but the total recovery of a complainant may not exceed twice the amount of the actual injury. In the case of injury caused by an activity that is prohibited by section 10(b)(6) (A) or (B) of this Act, the amount of the injury shall be the difference between the rate paid by the injured shipper and the most favorable rate paid by another shipper.

(h) INJUNCTION.—

(1) In connection with any investigation conducted under this section, the Commission may bring suit in a district court of the United States to enjoin conduct in violation of this Act. Upon a showing that standards for granting injunctive relief by courts of equity are met and after notice to the defendant, the court may grant a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction for a period not to exceed 10 days after the Commission has issued an order disposing of the issues under investigation. Any such suit shall be brought in a district in which the defendant resides or transacts business.

(2) After filing a complaint with the Commission under subsection (a), the complainant may file suit in a district court of the United States to enjoin conduct in violation of this Act. Upon a showing that standards for granting injunctive relief by courts of equity are met and after notice to the defendant, the court may grant a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction for a period not to exceed 10 days after the Commission has issued an order disposing of the complaint. Any such suit shall be brought in the district in which the defendant has been sued by the Commission under paragraph (1); or, if no suit has been filed, in a district in which the defendant resides or transacts business. A defendant that prevails in a suit under this paragraph shall be allowed reasonable attorney's fees to be assessed and collected as part of the costs of the suit.

SEC. 12. SUBPENAS AND DISCOVERY.

46 USC app.
1711.

(a) IN GENERAL.—In investigations and adjudicatory proceedings under this Act—

(1) depositions, written interrogatories, and discovery procedures may be utilized by any party under rules and regulations issued by the Commission that, to the extent practicable, shall be in conformity with the rules applicable in civil proceedings in the district courts of the United States; and

(2) the Commission may by subpoena compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, documents, and other evidence.

(b) WITNESS FEES.—Witnesses shall, unless otherwise prohibited by law, be entitled to the same fees and mileage as in the courts of the United States.

46 USC app.

SEC. 13. PENALTIES.

(a) ASSESSMENT OF PENALTY.—Whoever violates a provision of this Act, a regulation issued thereunder, or a Commission order is liable to the United States for a civil penalty. The amount of the civil penalty, unless otherwise provided in this Act, may not exceed $5,000 for each violation unless the violation was willfully and knowingly committed, in which case the amount of the civil penalty may not exceed $25,000 for each violation. Each day of a continuing violation constitutes a separate offense.

(b) ADDITIONAL PENALTIES.—

(1) For a violation of section 10(b) (1), (2), (3), (4), or (8) of this Act, the Commission may suspend any or all tariffs of the common carrier, or that common carrier's right to use any or all tariffs of conferences of which it is a member, for a period not to exceed 12 months.

(2) For failure to supply information ordered to be produced or compelled by subpoena under section 12 of this Act, the Commission may, after notice and an opportunity for hearing, suspend any or all tariffs of a common carrier, or that common carrier's right to use any or all tariffs of conferences of which it is a member.

(3) A common carrier that accepts or handles cargo for carriage under a tariff that has been suspended or after its right to utilize that tariff has been suspended is subject to a civil penalty of not more than $50,000 for each shipment.

(4) If, in defense of its failure to comply with a subpoena or discovery order, a common carrier alleges that documents or information located in a foreign country cannot be produced because of the laws of that country, the Commission shall immediately notify the Secretary of State of the failure to comply and of the allegation relating to foreign laws. Upon receiving the notification, the Secretary of State shall promptly consult with the government of the nation within which the documents or information are alleged to be located for the purpose of assisting the Commission in obtaining the documents or information sought.

(5) If, after notice and hearing, the Commission finds that the action of a common carrier, acting alone or in concert with any person, or a foreign government has unduly impaired access of a vessel documented under the laws of the United States to ocean trade between foreign ports, the Commission shall take action that it finds appropriate, including the imposition of any of the penalties authorized under paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of this subsection.

President.

(6) Before an order under this subsection becomes effective, it shall be immediately submitted to the President who may, within 10 days after receiving it, disapprove the order if the President finds that disapproval is required for reasons of the national defense or the foreign policy of the United States.

(c) ASSESSMENT PROCEDURES.—Until a matter is referred to the Attorney General, the Commission may, after notice and an opportunity for hearing, assess each civil penalty provided for in this Act. In determining the amount of the penalty, the Commission shall take into account the nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of the violation committed and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require. The Commission may compromise, modify, or remit, with or without conditions, any civil penalty.

(d) REVIEW OF CIVIL PENALTY.—A person against whom a civil penalty is assessed under this section may obtain review thereof under chapter 158 of title 28, United States Code.

et seq.

(e) FAILURE TO PAY ASSESSMENT.—If a person fails to pay an assessment of a civil penalty after it has become final or after the appropriate court has entered final judgment in favor of the Commission, the Attorney General at the request of the Commission may seek to recover the amount assessed in an appropriate district court of the United States. In such an action, the court shall enforce the Commission's order unless it finds that the order was not regularly made or duly issued.

(f) LIMITATIONS.—

Joint Resolution

Mar. 20, 1984
[S.J. Res. 132]

To designate the week beginning May 6, 1984, as "National Correctional Officers Week".

Whereas American correctional officers who work in our jails and prisons are currently responsible for the containment and control of over six hundred thousand prisoners;

Whereas correctional officers must protect inmates from violence while encouraging them to develop skills and attitudes that can help them become productive members of society following their release;

Whereas the morale of correctional officers is affected by many factors, and the public perception of the role of correctional officers is more often based upon dramatization rather than factual review;

Whereas good job performance requires correctional officers to absorb the adverse attitudes present in confinement while maintaining themselves as professionals in order to have their actions appreciated and accepted by the public at large;

Whereas the American Association of Correctional Officers will be holding its annual convention May 6-12, 1984; and

Whereas the attitude and morale of correctional officers is a matter worthy of serious congressional attention: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the week beginning May 6, 1984, hereby is designated "National Correctional Officers Week" and the President of the United States is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe such week with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

Joint Resolution

Mar. 21, 1984
[H.J. Res. 200]

Designating March 21, 1984, as "National Single Parent Day".

Whereas there are fourteen million single parents in the United States, the number doubling in the last ten years;

Whereas 20 per centum of all our Nation's children are now living in single parent families, and an estimated 50 per centum of this Nation's children will live with a single parent before the age of eighteen;

Whereas in the past, single parent families have not always been an accepted part of society;

Whereas single parents have struggled courageously to raise their children to a healthy maturity, with the full sense of being loved and accepted as persons, and with the same prospects for adulthood as children who mature with their two parents together; and

Whereas it is time to recognize the courage and dedication of these parents who work to maintain strong family units and to be responsible members of American society: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That March 21, 1984, is designated "National Single Parent Day". Public Law 98-242
98th Congress

An Act

To authorize an ongoing program of water resources research, and for other purposes.

Mar. 22, 1984

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

Water Resources
Research Act of 1984.

TITLE I

SEC. 101. This Act may be cited as the “Water Resources Research Act of 1984”

42 USC 10301
note.

SEC. 102. The Congress finds and declares that—

42 USC 10301.

(1) the existence of an adequate supply of water of good quality for the production of materials and energy for the Nation’s needs and for the efficient use of the Nation’s energy and water resources is essential to national economic stability and growth, and to the well-being of the people;

(2) the management of water resources is closely related to maintaining environmental quality and social well-being;

(3) there is an increasing threat of impairment to the quantity and quality of surface and groundwater resources;

(4) the Nation’s capabilities for technological assessment and planning and for policy formulation for water resources must be strengthened at the Federal, State, and local governmental levels;

(5) there should be a continuing national investment in water and related research and technology commensurate with growing national needs;

(6) it is necessary to provide for the research and development of technology for the conversion of saline and other impaired waters to a quality suitable for municipal, industrial, agricultural, recreational, and other beneficial uses; and

(7) the Nation must provide programs to strengthen research and associated graduate education because the pool of scientists, engineers, and technicians trained in fields related to water resources constitutes an invaluable natural resource which should be increased, fully utilized, and regularly replenished.

SEC. 103. It is the purpose of this Act to assist the Nation and the States in augmenting their water resources science and technology as a way to—technology.

42 USC 10302.

(1) assure supplies of water sufficient in quantity and quality to meet the Nation’s expanding needs for the production of food, materials, and energy;

(2) discover practical solutions to the Nation’s water and water resources related problems, particularly those problems related to impaired water quality;

(3) assure the protection and enhancement of environmental and social values in connection with water resources management and utilization;

(4) promote the interest of State and local governments as well as private industry in research and the development of technology that will reclaim waste water and to convert saline and other impaired waters to waters suitable for municipal, industrial, agricultural, recreational, and other beneficial uses;

(5) coordinate more effectively the Nation's water resources research program; and

(6) promote the development of a cadre of trained research scientists, engineers, and technicians for future water resources problems.

Research and development.
42 USC 10303.

SEC. 104. (a) Subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior (hereafter in this Act referred to as the "Secretary") under this section, one water resources research and technology institute, center, or equivalent agency (hereafter in this Act referred to as the "institute") may be established in each State (as used in this Act, the term "State" includes the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the District of Columbia, the Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Mariana Islands and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands) at a college or university which was established in accordance with the Act approved July 2, 1862 (12 Stat. 503; 7 U.S.C. 301ff), entitled "An Act donating public lands to the several States and territories which may provide colleges for the benefit of agriculture and the mechanic arts" or at some other institution designated by act of the legislature of the State concerned. If there is more than one such college or university in a State established in accordance with such Act of July 2, 1862, the institute in such State shall, in the absence of a designation to the contrary by act of the legislature of the State, be established at the one such college or university designated by the Governor of the State. Two or more States may cooperate in the establishment of a single institute or regional institute, in which event the sums otherwise allocated to institutes in each of the cooperating States shall be paid to such single or regional institute.

7 USC 301.

(b) Each institute shall—

(1) plan, conduct, or otherwise arrange for competent research with respect to water resources, including investigations and experiments of either a basic or practical nature, or both; promote the dissemination and application of the results of these efforts; and provide for the training of scientists and engineers through such research, investigations, and experiments, and

(2) cooperate closely with other colleges and universities in the State that have demonstrated capabilities for research, information dissemination, and graduate training in order to develop a statewide program designed to resolve State and regional water and related land problems.

Each institute shall also cooperate closely with other institutes and other organizations in the region to increase the effectiveness of the institutes and for the purpose of regional coordination.

Grants.

(c) From the sums appropriated pursuant to subsection (f) of this section, the Secretary shall make grants to each institute to be matched on a basis of no less than one non-Federal dollar for every Federal dollar during the fiscal years ending September 30, 1985, and September 30, 1986, one and one-half non-Federal dollars for each Federal dollar during the fiscal years ending September 30, 1987, and September 30, 1988, and two non-Federal dollars for each Federal dollar during the fiscal year ending September 30, 1989.

(d) Prior to and as a condition of the receipt each fiscal year of funds appropriated under subsection (f) of this section, each institute shall submit to the Secretary for his approval a water research program that includes assurances, satisfactory to the Secretary, that such program was developed in close consultation and collaboration with the director of that State's department of water resources or similar agency, other leading water resources officials within the State, and interested members of the public. The program described in the preceding sentence shall include plans to promote research, training, information dissemination, and other activities meeting the needs of the State and Nation, and shall encourage regional cooperation among institutes in research into areas of water management, development, and conservation that have a regional or national character.

(e)(1) The Secretary shall establish procedures for a careful and detailed evaluation of each institute to determine that the quality and relevance of its water resources research and its effectiveness as an institution for planning, conducting and arranging for research warrants its continued support under this section in the national interest. The evaluation of each institute shall be made by a team of knowledgeable individuals including employees of the Department of the Interior, university faculty or administrators, water research institute directors from other institutes, State or local water resource agency personnel, and private citizens selected for this purpose. The Secretary may also secure the cooperation of the National Research Council/National Academy of Science. The evaluation team shall visit the institute and shall assess the scientific quality of its research program, the potential effectiveness of its research in meeting water resource needs, and the demonstrated performance in making research results available to users in the State and elsewhere. Criteria for making the determination that an institute is an effective instrument for water resources research shall include the following: accreditation in sufficient disciplines to successfully mount a multidisciplinary research program; sufficient resources, including laboratory, library, computer, and support facilities; a sufficiently close administrative relation and physical proximity to the university and to all the parts of it needed to provide an effective working relationship with researchers in a wide range of disciplines; and institutional commitment to the support and continuation of an effective water research program.

(2) The Secretary shall arrange for each of the institutes supported under this section to be evaluated under this subsection within two years after its establishment and to be reevaluated at intervals not to exceed four years. If, as a result of any such evaluation, the Secretary determines that an institute does not qualify for further support under this section, then no further grants to the institute may be made until the institute's qualification is reestablished to the satisfaction of the Secretary.

(f)(1) For the purpose of carrying out this section, there is authorized to be appropriated to the Secretary the sum of $10,000,000 for each of the fiscal years ending September 30, 1985, through September 30, 1989, such sums to remain available until expended.

(2) Any sums appropriated under this subsection but which fail to be obligated by the close of the fiscal year for which they were appropriated shall be transferred by the Secretary and available for obligation during the succeeding fiscal year under the terms of section 106 of this Act.

authorization.

Grants.
42 USC 10304.

SEC. 105. (a)(1) In addition to the grants authorized by section 104 of this Act, the Secretary is authorized to make grants, on a dollar-for-dollar matching basis, to the institutes established under such section, as well as other qualified educational institutions, private foundations, private firms, individuals, and agencies of local or State government for research concerning any aspect of a water resource-related problem which the Secretary may deem to be in the national interest. Such grants shall be made with such advice and review by peer or other expert groups of appropriate interdisciplinary composition as the Secretary deems appropriate on the basis of the merits of the project and the need for the knowledge such project is expected to produce upon completion.

(2) Research funded under this section should to the extent possible utilize the best qualified graduate students so the Nation profits from the education and training benefits resulting from the use of the latest in technological developments in solving water problems.

(3) In cases where the Secretary determines, in accordance with criteria established by him, that research under this section is of a basic nature which would not otherwise be undertaken, the Secretary may approve grants under this section with a matching requirement other than that specified in paragraph (1) of this subsection.

(b) Each application for a grant under this section shall state the nature of the project to be undertaken, the period during which it will be pursued, the qualifications of the personnel who will direct and conduct it, the importance of the project to the Nation as well as to the region and State concerned, its relation to other research projects previously or currently being pursued, and the extent to which it will provide an opportunity for the training of water resources scientists.

Appropriation
authorization.

(c) There is authorized to be appropriated to the Secretary the sum of $20,000,000 for the purpose of carrying out this section for each of the fiscal years ending September 30, 1985, through September 30, 1989, such sums to remain available until expended.

Such grants or contracts shall be made on the basis of the merit and feasibility of the project based on expert evaluation as deemed appropriate by the Secretary, taking care to protect proprietary information of private firms or individuals associated with the technology.

(2) The Secretary may establish any condition for the matching of funds by the recipient of any grant or contract under this section which the Secretary considers to be in the best interest of the Nation considering the technology needs for water resources in the Nation.

(b) Each application for a grant or contract under this section shall state the nature of the project to be undertaken, the qualifications of the personnel who will direct and conduct it, the facilities of the organization performing the technology development, the importance of the project to the Nation, region, and State concerned, and the potential benefit to be accrued from the development.

Joint Resolution

Honoring the contribution of blacks to American independence.

Mar. 27, 1984

[H.J. Res. 454]

Whereas, from 1776 to 1783, more than five thousand black men participated in the American Revolution as members of the Continental Army, and State and local militias; and

Whereas blacks participated in every major battle of the Revolution, including Monmouth and Yorktown and were encamped with Washington at Valley Forge; and

Whereas many blacks distinguished themselves in battle with acts of heroism that were well-noted at the time, some were praised by their officers and a few honored or rewarded by State legislatures; and

Whereas a large proportion of black recruits were inhabitants of the original thirteen colonies; and

Whereas black soldiers participated in integrated fighting units and performed a wide array of duties requiring bravery and skill; and

Whereas many blacks who participated in the Revolution are unknown soldiers, who used assumed names or were identified on muster rolls only by race and therefore their descendants will never know of the specific contributions they made to the cause of independence; and

Whereas, despite efforts by the Continental Congress and various States to exclude them up until 1778, blacks continued to enlist as substitutes until laws barring their participation in the war were removed, and free blacks of Massachusetts personally protested to General Washington about their initial exclusion from service; and

Whereas the Congress has never officially recognized the contributions of free blacks and slaves to the struggle for American liberty and independence: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That—

(1) the Congress extends thanks to the descendants of free blacks and slaves who participated in the Revolution and acknowledges the contributions of these courageous men and women who, in aspiring to freedom, helped bring about American independence and set in motion events that contributed to the attainment of equal rights for blacks, particularly in recent decades;

(2) the Congress encourages the Federal Government, State and local governments and private organizations, particularly those hereditary organizations that honor Revolutionary War patriots to conduct appropriate activities during Black History Month 1985 in honor of black involvement in the Revolution;

Plaques and markers.

(3) the Congress encourages State legislatures and city councils, especially those located in jurisdictions that provided black soldiers to the Continental Army and to State and local militias, and in jurisdictions where battles occurred, to issue proclamations acknowledging black contributions to the cause of freedom; and

(4) the Congress encourages the placement of plaques and markers in appropriate places, at Valley Forge and elsewhere, in commemoration of black involvement and heroism in the battles of the Revolution.

Declaring the week of May 7 through May 13, 1984, as "National Photo Week".

Mar. 27, 1984
[S.J. Res. 250]

Whereas photography is the prime visual recorder of human events of any dimension, preserving memories, emotion, and sentiment for virtually all the American people;

Whereas photography is an established and growing art form communicating the beauty and diversity of America and its people both within the land and abroad;

Whereas photography is an important contributor to communication, meteorology, justice, medicine, geographic exploration, astronomy, agriculture, and many other fields of science, technology, and inquiry; and

Whereas photography is, and has long been, an indispensable tool in preserving the history of the Nation and the changing panorama of American landscape and culture: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That May 7 through May 13, 1984, be declared to be the first annual "National Photo Week". The President is authorized, since "National Photo Week" is to be a time dedicated to increasing the American public's appreciation and understanding of photography and to improving individual skill in photography so that the benefits thereof may be appreciated and used on the broadest possible scale, for the greatest number of people, to issue a proclamation to aid in the celebration of said week.

To authorize and request the President to issue a proclamation designating May 6 through May 13, 1984 as "Jewish Heritage Week".

Whereas the Congress recognizes that an understanding of the heritage of all American ethnic groups contributes to the unity of our country;

Whereas intergroup understanding can be further fostered through an appreciation of the culture, history, and traditions of the Jewish community and the contributions of Jews to our country and society; and

Whereas the months of March, April, and May contain events of major significance in the Jewish calendar—Passover, the anniversary of the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising, Israeli Independence Day, Solidarity Sunday for Soviet Jewry, and Jerusalem Day: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation designating May 6 through May 13, 1984, as "Jewish Heritage Week" and calling upon the people of the United States, State and local government agencies, and interested organizations to observe that week with appropriate ceremonies, activities, and programs.

To designate the week of May 6, 1984, through May 13, 1984, as "National Tuberous Sclerosis Week".

Apr. 13, 1984

[S.J. Res. 148]

Whereas tuberous sclerosis (hereafter in this joint resolution referred to as "TS") is a genetic disorder affecting as many as one in ten thousand Americans;

Whereas TS remains poorly understood and frequently misdiagnosed even though it is one of the more common genetic disorders;

Whereas TS affects both males and females and individuals of all races;

Whereas characteristics of TS include skin markings, seizures, motor difficulties, mental retardation, tumors of the brain and other organs, and behavioral abnormalities;

Whereas in any individual, the disease features and severity may vary from mild, when patients can live normal lives, to extreme, when TS is disabling and may be life threatening;

Whereas modern research technology has increased the knowledge of TS, there remains much to be learned;

Whereas only with continued, extensive research is there any chance of conquering this horrifying disease; and

Whereas establishing a National Tuberous Sclerosis Week would serve to increase public awareness of TS and stimulate research:

Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the week of May 6, 1984, through May 13, 1984, is designated as "National Tuberous Sclerosis Week", and the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling on the people of the United States to observe the week with appropriate programs, ceremonies, and activities.

[S.J. Res. 171]

To provide for the designation of July 20, 1984, as "National P.O.W./M.I.A. Recognition Day".

Whereas the United States has fought in many wars;
Whereas thousands of Americans who served in such wars were captured by the enemy or are missing in action;
Whereas many American prisoners of war were subjected to brutal and inhuman treatment by their enemy captors in violation of international codes and customs for the treatment of prisoners of war and many such prisoners of war died from such treatment;
Whereas many Americans missing in action remain unaccounted for and the uncertainty surrounding their fate has caused their families to suffer acute hardship; and
Whereas the sacrifices of American prisoners of war and Americans missing in action and their families are deserving of national recognition: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the twentieth day of July 1984 shall be designated as "National P.O.W./M.I.A. Recognition Day" and the President of the United States is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to commemorate such day with appropriate activities.

Whereas the deaf and hard of hearing have made significant contributions to society in virtually every occupational category and profession; and

Whereas the remaining impediments and obstacles encountered by those with hearing disorders must be recognized and eliminated:
Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the week beginning April 8, 1984, is designated "National Hearing Impaired Awareness Week". Joint Resolution

Apr. 13, 1984
[H.J. Res. 520]

Designating April 13, 1984, as "Education Day, U.S.A.".

Whereas Congress recognizes the historical tradition of ethical values and principles which are the basis of civilized society and upon which our great Nation was founded;

Whereas these ethical values and principles have been the bedrock of society from the dawn of civilization, when they were known as the Seven Noahide Laws;

Whereas without these ethical values and principles the edifice of civilization stands in serious peril of returning to chaos;

Whereas society is profoundly concerned with the recent weakening of these principles that has resulted in crises that beleaguer and threaten the fabric of civilized society;

Whereas the justified preoccupation with these crises must not let the citizens of this Nation lose sight of their responsibility to transmit these historical ethical values from our distinguished past to the generations of the future;

Whereas the Lubavitch movement has fostered and promoted these ethical values and principles throughout the world;

Whereas Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneerson is the universally respected and revered leader of the Lubavitch movement, and his eighty-second birthday falls on April 13, 1984: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That April 13, 1984, the birthday of Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneerson, leader and head of the worldwide Lubavitch movement, is designated as "Education Day, U.S.A.". [S.J. Res. 173]

Whereas the Historic American Buildings Survey has been documenting the architectural heritage of the United States with measured drawings, photographs, and historical data since 1933; Whereas these records, stored in the Library of Congress for public use, along with the records created by a sister program, the Historic American Engineering Record, have added immeasurably to our knowledge and appreciation of the historic American built environment;

Whereas the Survey has proven to be an important training ground for thousands of architects, historians, and scholars who have worked to preserve our historic American architecture; and

Whereas the fiftieth anniversary of this program marks an appropriate time to commend the National Park Service, the Library of Congress, and the American Institute of Architects on the Survey's past accomplishments as well as a time to look forward to the continuance of this important mission of recording the best examples of historic American architecture and engineering: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Historic American Buildings Survey be commended for its substantial contributions to our understanding of the history and heritage of this Nation.

TITLE IV—ADDITIONAL PROPOSAL FOR DEFICIT REDUCTION

FINDINGS

SEC. 401. The Congress finds and declares that—

(1) current projections indicate that the Federal Government's budget deficits will continue at unacceptably high levels for the foreseeable future;

(2) these high deficits can place upward pressure on interest rates, reduce investment, raise the trade deficit, decrease employment, and threaten the vitality of economic recovery; and

(3) reduction of these unacceptably high deficits requires a comprehensive plan to slow the growth of Federal spending, including military and entitlement spending, and to increase revenues.

DOMESTIC ECONOMIC SUMMIT CONFERENCE TO REDUCE THE BUDGET DEFICIT

SEC. 402. (a) The President shall convene a domestic economic summit conference to address the dangerous economic situation created by these projected large deficits.

(b) The summit conference shall consist of the President, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the President pro tempore of the Senate, the majority leaders and minority leaders of the House of Representatives and Senate, and other appropriate participants from the Congress and the executive branch responsible for the development of economic policy.

Report.

(c) No later than forty-five days after the date of the enactment of this Act, this summit conference shall develop and report to Congress a comprehensive plan to reduce the projected deficits in the Budget of the United States.

To designate the period commencing April 1, 1984, and ending March 31, 1985, as the "Year of Excellence in Education".

Whereas the future of our Nation depends on the quality of education today;

Whereas every child is a precious resource whose potential should be realized to the fullest;

Whereas preservation of our priceless legacy of democracy, individual liberty, and rule of law requires informed citizens;

Whereas a national effort is necessary to revitalize our educational system;

Whereas academic excellence requires parental involvement;

Whereas a quality education for our teachers is essential to ensure the competence of our Nation's future leaders; and

To amend the Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act, 1930, by impressing a trust on the commodities and sales proceeds of perishable agricultural commodities for the benefit of the unpaid seller, and for other purposes.

May 7, 1984

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 5 of the Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act, 1930 (7 U.S.C. 499e) is amended by adding at the end thereof a new subsection to read as follows:

“(c)(1) It is hereby found that a burden on commerce in perishable agricultural commodities is caused by financing arrangements under which commission merchants, dealers, or brokers, who have not made payment for perishable agricultural commodities purchased, contracted to be purchased, or otherwise handled by them on behalf of another person, encumber or give lenders a security interest in, such commodities, or on inventories of food or other products derived from such commodities, and any receivables or proceeds from the sale of such commodities or products, and that such arrangements are contrary to the public interest. This subsection is intended to remedy such burden on commerce in perishable agricultural commodities and to protect the public interest.

“(2) Perishable agricultural commodities received by a commission merchant, dealer, or broker in all transactions, and all inventories of food or other products derived from perishable agricultural commodities, and any receivables or proceeds from the sale of such commodities or products, shall be held by such commission merchant, dealer, or broker in trust for the benefit of all unpaid suppliers or sellers of such commodities or agents involved in the transaction, until full payment of the sums owing in connection with such transactions has been received by such unpaid suppliers, sellers, or agents. Payment shall not be considered to have been made if the supplier, seller, or agent receives a payment instrument which is dishonored. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to transactions between a cooperative association (as defined in section 15(a) of the Agricultural Marketing Act (12 U.S.C. 1141j(a)), and its members.

“(3) The unpaid supplier, seller, or agent shall lose the benefits of such trust unless such person has given written notice of intent to preserve the benefits of the trust to the commission merchant, dealer, or broker and has filed such notice with the Secretary within thirty calendar days (i) after expiration of the time prescribed by which payment must be made, as set forth in regulations issued by the Secretary, (ii) after expiration of such other time by which payment must be made, as the parties have expressly agreed to in writing before entering into the transaction, or (iii) after the time the supplier, seller, or agent has received notice that the payment instrument promptly presented for payment has been dishonored. When the parties expressly agree to a payment time period different from that established by the Secretary, a copy of any such agree-

“(4) The several district courts of the United States are vested with jurisdiction specifically to entertain (i) actions by trust beneficiaries to enforce payment from the trust, and (ii) actions by the Secretary to prevent and restrain dissipation of the trust.”.

Whereas Americans are particularly dependent upon the ocean for environmental and recreational uses;

To recognize "Volunteer Firefighters Recognition Day" as a tribute to the bravery and self-sacrifice of our volunteer firefighters.

Whereas over 80 per centum of the firefighters in the United States are volunteers who selflessly protect our lives and property;

Whereas three hundred and ninety-five volunteer firefighters have lost their lives in the line of duty during the past five years, with fifty-eight such deaths occurring in 1983 alone;

Joint Resolution

May 11, 1984
[S.J. Res. 244]

Designating the week beginning on May 6, 1984, as "National Asthma and Allergy Awareness Week".

Whereas asthma and allergic diseases result in physical, emotional, and economic hardship for more than thirty-five million Americans and their families;

Whereas thousands of Americans, many of them young, die each year from asthma even though sufficient medical knowledge and resources exist to prevent many asthma-related deaths;

Whereas student absenteeism is due in significant part to asthma and allergic diseases;

Whereas environmental conditions in the workplace often cause or exacerbate asthma and allergic diseases among employees;

Whereas many hospital patients suffer allergic reactions to prescribed medications;

Whereas it is estimated that the American public pays $2,000,000,000 per year in medical bills directly attributable to the treatment and diagnosis of asthma and allergic diseases and pays another $2,000,000,000 per year as a result of the indirect social cost of such illnesses;

Whereas, because of recent developments in the study of immunology, health care providers are better equipped to diagnose and treat asthma and allergic diseases; and

Whereas increased public awareness of recent scientific advancements in the study of immunology will help dispel many of the common misconceptions concerning asthma, allergic diseases, and the victims of those illnesses: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the week beginning on May 6, 1984, is hereby designated as "National Asthma and Allergy Awareness Week", and the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe such week with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

[S.J. Res. 228]

Whereas at least one hundred different diseases and disorders of the gastrointestinal tract cause more than two hundred thousand deaths every year;

Joint Resolution

Designating the week of May 27, 1984, through June 2, 1984, as "National Animal Health Week".

May 25, 1984
[H.J. Res. 526]

Whereas tremendous progress has been made in the past one hundred years to advance the health and productivity of America's livestock industry and protect America's animals and pets through research, cooperative endeavor, and the use of sound, scientific, and humane principles;

Whereas the commemoration of one hundred years of commitment to animal health by the United States, dating from May 29, 1884, when Congress created the former Bureau of Animal Industry, is appropriate;

Whereas achievements by the Bureau and its successor organizations within the United States Department of Agriculture and their cooperators in several States have contributed immeasurably to America having the healthiest livestock in the world;

Whereas the Bureau and its successor organizations have a proud history of working with producers, cooperating State agencies, the veterinary profession, and the scientific community to wipe out animal plagues and to assure an abundant supply of safe, wholesome animal protein for American consumers; and

Whereas it is desirable to give the American public a better appreciation of the advances in animal health that contribute to the well-being of man as well as beast and likewise give them an appreciation of the role of healthy animals and pets in this country's past, present, and future: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States is hereby authorized and requested to issue a proclamation designating the seven-day period beginning on May 27, 1984, as "National Animal Health Week" and to invite the Governors of the States, officials of local governments, and the people of the United States to observe that week with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

[S.J. Res. 94]

To authorize and request the President to designate May 13, 1984, to June 17, 1984, as "Family Reunion Month".

Whereas the family is and has traditionally been recognized as the foundation of our society;

Whereas thousands of families in our Nation experience sorrow each year because of runaway, missing, or estranged members;

Whereas organizations exist which can assist families and missing members in establishing contact with one another;

Whereas estranged and missing individuals should be encouraged to use the services furnished by these organizations or to contact their families directly;

Whereas families should be encouraged to honor the individual member's efforts to communicate and to respect the individual's right to privacy;

Whereas the strength of our Nation can be increased through the reunion of families and the reaffirmation of family ties; and

Whereas Mother's Day and Father's Day are times when our citizens celebrate the importance of families: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation designating Mother's Day, May 13, 1984, to Father's Day, June 17, 1984, as "Family Reunion Month", and calling upon the people of the United States to observe the day with appropriate programs and activities.

Joint Resolution

Designating the month of November 1984 as "National Alzheimer's Disease Month".

May 31, 1984

[H.J. Res. 451]

Whereas more than two million Americans are affected by Alzheimer's disease, which is a surprisingly common disorder that destroys certain vital cells of the brain;

Whereas Alzheimer's disease is the fourth leading cause of death among older Americans;

Whereas Alzheimer's disease is responsible for 50 per centum of all nursing home admissions, at an annual cost of more than $20,000,000,000;

Whereas in one-third of all American families one parent will succumb to this disease;

Whereas Alzheimer's disease is not a normal consequence of aging; and

Whereas an increase in the national awareness of the problem of Alzheimer's disease may stimulate the interest and concern of the American people, which may lead, in turn, to increased research and eventually to the discovery of a cure for Alzheimer's disease: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the month of November 1984 is designated as "National Alzheimer's Disease Month". [H.J. Res. 487]

To designate June 6, 1984, as "D-day National Remembrance".

Whereas June 6, 1984, marks the fortieth anniversary of D-day, the day of the beginning of the Allied assault at Normandy, France; Whereas the D-day assault was the most extensive amphibious operation ever to occur, involving on the first day of the operation five thousand ships, eleven thousand sorties of Allied aircraft, and one hundred and fifty-three thousand American, British, and Canadian troops;

Whereas American troops suffered significant losses during the assault, including one thousand four hundred and sixty-five dead, three thousand one hundred and eighty-four wounded, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight missing in action, and twenty-six captured; and

Whereas the D-day assault was among the most critical events of World War II since its success led ultimately to the Allied victory in Europe: Now, therefore, be it

Whereas Harmon Killebrew was named to Major League Baseball's Hall of Fame on January 10, 1984;

Whereas Harmon Killebrew was a member of eleven American League All-Star squads and was the first American League player elected at three positions—first and third bases and the outfield;

Whereas next to Babe Ruth, Harmon Killebrew is the most prolific home run hitter in American League history;

Whereas Harmon Killebrew had eight seasons of at least forty home runs and eight years of one hundred and ten runs batted in;

Whereas Harmon Killebrew was the American League's Most Valuable Player in 1969, when he hit forty-nine home runs, had one hundred and forty runs batted in, and had a fielding average of 0.975; and

Whereas Harmon Killebrew hit four home runs in one double header: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That June 13, 1984, is designated "Harmon Killebrew Day", and the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe that day with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

June 15, 1984

[S.J. Res. 296]

To designate June 14, 1984, as "Baltic Freedom Day".

Whereas the people of the Baltic Republics of Lithuania, Latvia, and Estonia have cherished the principles of religious and political freedom and independence; and

Whereas the Baltic Republics have existed as independent, sovereign nations belonging to and fully recognized by the League of Nations; and

Whereas the people of the Baltic Republics have individual and separate cultures, national traditions, and languages distinctively foreign to those of Russia; and

Whereas the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (U.S.S.R.) in 1940 did illegally seize and occupy the Baltic Republics and by force incorporate them against their national will and contrary to their desire for independence and sovereignty into the U.S.S.R.; and

Whereas the U.S.S.R. since 1940 has systematically removed native Baltic peoples from their homelands by deporting them to Siberia and caused great masses of Russians to relocate in the Republics, thus threatening the Baltic cultures with extinction; and

Whereas the U.S.S.R. has imposed upon the captive people of the Baltic Republics an oppressive political system which has destroyed every vestige of democracy, civil liberties, and religious freedom; and

Whereas the people of Lithuania, Latvia, and Estonia find themselves today subjugated by the U.S.S.R., locked into a union they deplore, denied basic human rights, and persecuted for daring to protest; and

Whereas the United States stands as a champion of liberty, dedicated to the principles of national self-determination, human rights, and religious freedom, and opposed to oppression and imperialism; and

Whereas the United States, as a member of the United Nations, has repeatedly voted with a majority of that international body to uphold the right of other countries of the world, including those in Africa and Asia, to determine their fates and be free of foreign domination; and

Whereas the U.S.S.R. has steadfastly refused to return to the people of the Baltic States the right to exist as independent republics separate and apart from the U.S.S.R. or permit a return of personal, political, and religious freedoms: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Congress of the United States recognizes the continuing desire and the right of the people of Lithuania, Latvia, and Estonia for freedom and independence from the domination of the U.S.S.R. and deplores the refusal of the U.S.S.R. to recognize the sovereignty of the Baltic Republics and to yield to their rightful demands for independence from foreign domination and oppression and that the fourteenth day of June 1984, the anniversary of the mass deportation of Baltic peoples from their homelands in 1941, be designated "Baltic Freedom Day" as a symbol of the solidarity of the American people with the aspirations of the enslaved Baltic people and that the President of the United States be authorized and requested to issue a proclamation for the observance of Baltic Freedom Day with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

Whereas motor vehicle collisions are the primary cause of the crippling of children in the United States;
Whereas more children under the age of five years are killed or crippled as passengers involved in motor vehicle collisions than the total number of children killed or crippled by the seven most common childhood diseases: pertussis, tetanus, diphtheria, measles, mumps, rubella, and polio;
Whereas motor vehicle collisions are the leading trauma related cause of spinal cord injuries, epilepsy, and mental retardation in the United States;
Whereas during the years 1978 through 1982 nearly three thousand and four hundred children under the age of five years were killed in traffic collisions, and more than two hundred and fifty thousand children were injured in the United States;
Whereas an unrestrained child is less protected by padding and energy-absorbing materials than an adult in a motor vehicle collision, because protective devices are placed in areas more likely to benefit adults;
Whereas unrestrained children are subject to a significantly higher risk of serious head, spine, chest and abdominal injury in motor vehicle collisions than older passengers because the bodies of children are less developed and provide less protection;
Whereas an unrestrained child in a motor vehicle collision faces an increased danger of fatal or serious injury from ejection as well as injuries resulting from contact with the vehicle interior;
Whereas an unrestrained child in a motor vehicle not involved in a collision may be killed or injured as a result of sudden stops, turns, swerves, or from the unrestrained child falling from a moving vehicle;
Whereas forty-two States and the District of Columbia have enacted laws mandating the use of child safety restraint systems;
Whereas only 40 percent of children under the age of five are protected by child safety seats in the United States and national surveys show that over 70 percent of such seats are used incorrectly;

Whereas research has shown that the proper use of child restraints is 90 percent effective in preventing death and 67 percent effective in preventing injury;

Whereas death and injuries may be reduced significantly through greater public awareness, information, and education: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That June 18, 1984 is designated as "National Child Passenger Safety Awareness Day" and the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe that day with appropriate programs, ceremonies and activities.

Joint Resolution

June 18, 1984
[S.J. Res. 261]

To provide for the designation of the last week in June 1984 as "Helen Keller Deaf-Blind Awareness Week".

Whereas the anniversary of the birth of Helen Keller, the most accomplished, respected, and renowned deaf-blind American in our history, falls on June 27; and

Whereas deaf-blindness is one of the most severe of all disabilities, with respect to which some forty thousand Americans are deprived of two primary senses; and

Whereas the rubella epidemic of the 1960's, along with other pathologies, has resulted in deaf-blindness for approximately six thousand of our children; and

Whereas, because of the severity of deaf-blindness the cost of educating, training, and rehabilitating persons who are deaf and blind is high in comparison with other disabilities; and

Whereas this high cost causes many service agencies to be reluctant to serve deaf-blind persons, thus inhibiting the independence and self-sufficiency of such persons, and frequently resulting in their placement in custodial institutions; and

Whereas, although the Helen Keller National Center and its network, and regional deaf-blind centers serve a portion of this population, inadequate education, training and rehabilitation services to the deaf-blind population represents a terrible waste of human lives and resources, imposing a high economic cost on the Nation; and

Whereas it is in the national interest to prevent this waste of human resources, foster independence, create opportunities for employment, and maximize the ability to achieve among our deaf-blind citizens; and

Whereas these objectives can be accomplished only through an increased public awareness of, and attention to, the needs, abilities, and potential contributions to society of persons who are both deaf and blind; and

Whereas it is highly appropriate to publicize the needs, abilities, and potential of all deaf-blind persons, and simultaneously to recognize Helen Keller not only as a beacon of courage and hope for our Nation, but also as a symbol of what is possible for deaf-blind persons to achieve: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President shall issue a proclamation designating the last week in June of 1984 as “Helen Keller Deaf-Blind Awareness Week” and calling upon the people of the United States to observe such week with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

To designate certain National Forest System lands in the State of Vermont for inclusion in the National Wilderness Preservation System and to designate a national recreation area.

[H.R. 4198]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the "Vermont Wilderness Act of 1984".

Vermont
Wilderness Act
of 1984.
National Wilderness

TITLE I—NEW WILDERNESS AREAS

FINDINGS AND POLICY

SEC. 101. (a) Congress finds that—

(1) in the vicinity of major population centers and in the more populous eastern half of the United States there is an urgent need to identify, designate, and preserve areas of wilderness by including suitable lands within the National Wilderness Preservation System;

(2) in recognition of this urgent need, certain suitable lands in the National Forest System in Vermont were designated by Congress as wilderness in 1975;

(3) there exist in the National Forest System in the vicinity of major population centers and in Vermont additional areas of undeveloped land which meet the definition of wilderness in section 2(c) of the Wilderness Act;

16 USC 1131.

(4) lands in Vermont which are suitable for designation as wilderness are increasingly threatened by the pressures of a growing and concentrated population, expanding settlement, spreading mechanization, and development and uses inconsistent with the protection, maintenance, and enhancement of their wilderness character; and

(5) the Wilderness Act establishes that an area is qualified and suitable for designation as wilderness which (i) though man's works may have been present in the past, has been or may be so restored by natural influences as to generally appear to have been affected primarily by the forces of nature, with the imprint of man's work substantially unnoticeable, and (ii) may, upon designation as wilderness, contain certain preexisting, nonconforming uses, improvements, structures, or installations; and Congress has reaffirmed these established policies in the designation of additional areas since enactment of the Wilderness Act, exercising its sole authority to determine the suitability of such areas for designation as wilderness.

note.

(b) The purpose of this title is to designate certain National Forest System lands in the State of Vermont as components of the National Wilderness Preservation System, in order to preserve such areas as an enduring resource of wilderness which shall be managed to perpetuate and protect watersheds and wildlife habitat, preserve scenic and historic resources, and promote scientific research, primitive recreation, solitude, physical and mental challenge, and inspiration for the benefit of all Americans to a greater extent than is possible in the absence of wilderness designation.

DESIGNATION OF WILDERNESS AREAS

SEC. 102. In furtherance of the purposes of the Wilderness Act (16 U.S.C. 1131-1136), the following lands in the State of Vermont are designated as wilderness and, therefore, as components of the National Wilderness Preservation System:

16 USC 1132
note.

(1) certain lands in the Green Mountain National Forest, Vermont, which comprise approximately twenty-one thousand four hundred and eighty acres, as generally depicted on a map entitled "Breadloaf Wilderness—Proposed", dated September 1983, and which shall be known as the Breadloaf Wilderness;

16 USC 1132
note.

(2) certain lands in the Green Mountain National Forest, Vermont, which comprise approximately six thousand seven hundred and twenty acres, as generally depicted on a map entitled "Big Branch Wilderness—Proposed", dated September 1983, and which shall be known as the Big Branch Wilderness;

16 USC 1132
note.

(3) certain lands in the Green Mountain National Forest, Vermont, which comprise approximately six thousand nine hundred and twenty acres, as generally depicted on a map entitled "Peru Peak Wilderness—Proposed", dated September 1983, and which shall be known as the Peru Peak Wilderness;

(4) certain lands in the Green Mountain National Forest, Vermont, which comprise approximately one thousand and eighty acres, as generally depicted on a map entitled "Lye Brook Additions—Proposed", dated September 1983, and which are hereby incorporated in, and shall be deemed to be a part of, the Lye Brook Wilderness as designated by Public Law 93-622; and

88 Stat. 2096.

16 USC 1132
note.

(5) certain lands in the Green Mountain National Forest, Vermont, which comprise approximately five thousand and sixty acres, as generally depicted on a map entitled "George D. Aiken Wilderness—Proposed", dated September 1983, and which shall be known as the George D. Aiken Wilderness.

MAPS AND DESCRIPTIONS

SEC. 103. As soon as practicable after enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Agriculture shall file a map and a legal description of each wilderness area designated by this title with the Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs and the Committee on Agriculture of the United States House of Representatives and with the Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry of the United States Senate. Each such map and description shall have the same force and effect as if included in this title, except that correction of clerical and typographical errors in each such map and description may be made by the Secretary. Each such map and description shall be on file and available for public inspection in the Office of the Chief of the Forest Service, Department of Agriculture.

Public
availability.

ADMINISTRATION OF WILDERNESS

SEC. 104. (a) Subject to valid existing rights, each wilderness area designated by this title shall be administered by the Secretary of Agriculture in accordance with the provisions of the Wilderness Act governing areas designated by that Act as wilderness, except that any reference in such provisions to the effective date of the Wilderness Act shall be deemed to be a reference to the date of enactment of this title. 16 USC 1131 note.

(b) As provided in section 4(d)(8) of the Wilderness Act, nothing in this title shall be construed as affecting the jurisdiction or responsibilities of the State of Vermont with respect to wildlife and fish in the national forest in the State of Vermont. 16 USC 1133.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of the Wilderness Act or any other provision of law, the Appalachian Trail and related structures, the Long Trail and related structures, and the associated trails of the Appalachian Trail and the Long Trail in Vermont may be maintained. 16 USC 1131 note.

EFFECT OF RARE II

SEC. 105. (a) Congress finds that—

Conservation.

(1) the Department of Agriculture has completed the second roadless area review and evaluation program (RARE II); and

(2) with respect to the National Forest System lands in the State of Vermont which were reviewed by the Department of Agriculture in the second roadless area review and evaluation (RARE II) and those lands referred to in subsection (d), that review and evaluation or reference shall be deemed for the purposes of the initial land management plans required for such lands by the Forest and Rangeland Renewable Resources Planning Act of 1974, as amended by the National Forest Management Act of 1976, to be an adequate consideration of the suitability of such lands for inclusion in the National Wilderness Preservation System and the Department of Agriculture shall not be required to review the wilderness option prior to the revisions of the plans, but shall review the wilderness option when the plans are revised, which revisions will ordinarily occur on a ten-year cycle, or at least every fifteen years, unless, prior to such time, the Secretary of Agriculture finds that conditions in a unit have significantly changed;

16 USC 1600 note.
16 USC 1600 note.

(3) areas in the State of Vermont reviewed in such final environmental statement or referenced in subsection (d) and not designated as wilderness or for special management pursuant to section 204 of this Act upon enactment of this Act shall be managed for multiple use in accordance with land management plans pursuant to section 6 of the Forest and Rangeland Renewable Resources Planning Act of 1974, as amended by the National Forest Management Act of 1976: Provided, That such areas need not be managed for the purpose of protecting their suitability for wilderness designation prior to or during revision of the initial land management plans; and

(4) in the event that revised land management plans in the State of Vermont are implemented pursuant to section 6 of the Forest and Rangeland Renewable Resources Planning Act of 1974, as amended by the National Forest Management Act of 1976, and other applicable law, areas not recommended for wilderness designation need not be managed for the purpose of protecting their suitability for wilderness designation prior to or during revision of such plans, and areas recommended for wilderness designation shall be managed for the purpose of protecting their suitability for wilderness designation as may be required by the Forest and Rangeland Renewable Resources Planning Act of 1974, as amended by the National Forest Management Act of 1976, and other applicable law.

(d) The provisions of this section shall also apply to National Forest System roadless lands in the State of Vermont which are less than five thousand acres in size.

TITLE II—WHITE ROCKS NATIONAL RECREATION AREA

FINDINGS AND POLICY

16 USC 460nn.

SEC. 201. (a) Congress finds that—

(1) Vermont is a beautiful but small and rural State, situated near four large cities with combined metropolitan populations of over fifteen million;

(2) geographic and topographic characteristics of Vermont provide opportunities for large numbers of people to experience the beauty of primitive areas, but also place unusual pressure to provide options to maximize the availability of such lands for a variety of forms of recreation;

(3) certain lands designated as the Big Branch and Peru Peak Wilderness Areas by title I of this Act are suitable for inclusion as part of the national recreation area; and

(4) certain other lands in the Green Mountain National Forest not designated as wilderness by this Act are of a predominantly roadless nature and possess outstanding wild values that are important for primitive and semiprimitive recreation, watershed protection, wildlife habitat, ecological study, education, and historic and archeological resources, and are deemed suitable for preservation and protection as part of a national recreation area.

(b) The purpose of this title is to designate certain National Forest System lands in the State of Vermont as the White Rocks National Recreation Area in order to preserve and protect their existing wilderness and wild values and to promote wild forest and aquatic habitat for wildlife, watershed protection, opportunities for primitive and semiprimitive recreation, and scenic, ecological, and scientific values.

DESIGNATION OF WHITE ROCKS NATIONAL RECREATION AREA

SEC. 202. In furtherance of the findings and purposes of this title, certain lands in the Green Mountain National Forest, Vermont, which comprise approximately thirty-six thousand four hundred acres, as generally depicted on a map entitled "White Rocks National Recreation Area—Proposed", dated September 1983, are hereby designated as the White Rocks National Recreation Area. 16 USC 460nn-1.

MAP AND DESCRIPTION

SEC. 203. As soon as practicable after enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Agriculture shall file a map and legal description of the national recreation area designated by this title with the Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs and the Committee on Agriculture of the United States House of Representatives and with the Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry of the United States Senate. Such map and description shall have the same force and effect as if included in this title, except that correction of clerical and typographical errors in such map and description may be made by the Secretary. Such map and description shall be on file and available for public inspection in the Office of the Chief of the Forest Service, Department of Agriculture. 16 USC 460nn-2. Public availability.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE NATIONAL RECREATION AREA

SEC. 204. (a) Subject to valid existing rights, the White Rocks National Recreation Area designated by this title shall be administered by the Secretary of Agriculture in accordance with the findings and purpose of this title and the laws, rules, and regulations applicable to the national forests in a manner compatible with the following objectives: 16 USC 460nn-3.

- (1) the continuation of existing primitive and semiprimitive recreational use in a natural environment;
- (2) utilization of natural resources shall be permitted only if consistent with the findings and purposes in this title;
- (3) preservation and protection of forest and aquatic habitat for fish and wildlife; and
- (4) protection and conservation of special areas having uncommon or outstanding wilderness, biological, geological, recreational, cultural, historical or archeological, and scientific, or other values contributing to the public benefit.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, federally-owned lands within the White Rocks National Recreation Area as designated by this title are hereby withdrawn from all forms of appropriation under the mineral leasing laws, including all laws pertaining to geothermal leasing, and all amendments thereto.

Public lands.

(c) The Secretary shall permit hunting, fishing, and trapping on lands and waters under the Secretary's jurisdiction within the boundaries of the national recreation area designated by this title in accordance with applicable laws of the United States and the State of Vermont.

(d) Within eighteen months after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall develop and submit to the Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs and the Committee on Agriculture of the United States House of Representatives and to the Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry of the United States Senate a comprehensive management plan for the national recreation area designated by this title.

(e) In conducting the reviews and preparing the comprehensive management plan required by subsection (d), the Secretary shall provide for full public participation, shall consider the views of all interested agencies, organizations, and individuals, and shall particularly emphasize the values enumerated in section 201(a)(4) of this title.

Any patent issued after the date of enactment of this Act shall convey title only to the minerals together with the right to use the surface of lands for mining purposes subject to such reasonable regulations as the Secretary shall prescribe.

(2) those necessary to maintain or improve wildlife habitat, water yield and quality, forage production, and dispersed outdoor recreation opportunities;

(3) livestock grazing, to the extent that such use will not significantly adversely affect the resources of the recreation area;

(5) those developments or facilities necessary for the public enjoyment and use of the recreation area, when such development or facilities do not detract from the purposes of the recreation area; and

(6) public service land occupancies, including power transmission lines, provided there is no feasible alternative location, and, the Secretary finds that it is in the public interest to locate such facilities within the recreation area.

(f) The following lands within the recreation area are hereby designated as wilderness and therefore as components of the National Wilderness Preservation System, and shall, notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, be administered by the Secretary in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Wilderness Act: Certain lands in the Umpqua, Willamette, and Winema National Forests which comprise approximately fifty-five thousand one hundred acres, are generally depicted on a map dated March 1984, entitled "Mount Thielsen Wilderness—Proposed", and which shall be known as the Mount Thielsen Wilderness; and certain lands in the Willamette and Deschutes National Forests, which comprise approximately fifteen thousand seven hundred acres, are generally depicted on a map dated March 1984, entitled "Diamond Peak Wilderness Additions—Proposed", and which are hereby incorporated in, and which shall be deemed to be a part of, the Diamond Peak Wilderness as designated in Public Law 88-577.

note.

SEC. 6. Congress does not intend that designation of wilderness areas in the State of Oregon lead to the creation of protective perimeters or buffer zones around each wilderness area. The fact that nonwilderness activities or uses can be seen or heard from the areas within the wilderness shall not, of itself, preclude such activities or uses up to the boundary of the wilderness area.

SEC. 7. (a) The Congress finds that—

(2) with respect to the National Forest System lands in the State of Oregon which were reviewed by the Department of Agriculture in the second roadless area review and evaluation (RARE II), and those lands referred to in subsection (d), except those lands remaining in further planning or special management pursuant to section 4 of this Act upon enactment of this Act, that review and evaluation or reference shall be deemed for the purpose of the initial land management plans required for such lands by the Forest and Rangeland Renewable Resources Planning Act of 1974 as amended by the National Forest Management Act of 1976, to be an adequate consideration of the suitability of such lands for inclusion in the National Wilderness Preservation System and the Department of Agriculture shall not be required to review the wilderness option prior to the revision of the plans, but shall review the wilderness options when the plans are revised, which revisions will ordinarily occur on a ten-year cycle, or at least every fifteen years, unless, prior to such time the Secretary of Agriculture finds that conditions in a unit have significantly changed;

(3) areas in the State of Oregon reviewed in such final environmental statement or referenced in subsection (d) and not designated as wilderness or for special management pursuant to section 4 of this Act or remaining in further planning upon enactment of this Act shall be managed for multiple use in accordance with land management plans pursuant to section 6 of the Forest and Rangeland Renewable Resources Planning Act of 1974, as amended by the National Forest Management Act of 1976: Provided, That such areas need not be managed for the purpose of protecting their suitability for wilderness designation prior to or during revision of the land management plans;

(4) in the event that revised land management plans in the State of Oregon are implemented pursuant to section 6 of the Forest and Rangeland Renewable Resources Planning Act of 1974, as amended by the National Forest Management Act of 1976, and other applicable law, areas not recommended for wilderness designation, need not be managed for the purpose of protecting their suitability for wilderness designation prior to or during revision of such plans, and areas recommended for wilderness designation shall be managed for the purpose of protecting their suitability for wilderness designation as may be required by the Forest and Rangeland Renewable Resources

(c) As used in this section, and as provided in section 6 of the Forest and Rangeland Renewable Resources Planning Act of 1974 as amended by the National Forest Management Act of 1976, the term "revision" shall not include an "amendment" to a plan.

16 USC 1604.

(d) The provisions of this section shall also apply to:

(1) those National Forest System roadless lands in the Mount Hood, Siskiyou, Umatilla, Umpqua, Wallowa-Whitman, Willamette, and Winema National Forests in the State of Oregon which were evaluated in the Eagle Creek; Roaring River; Mount Butler-Dry Creek; Oregon Butte; Cougar Bluff-Williams Creek; Grand Ronde; Wallowa Valley; Willamette; or Chemult unit plans; and

Joint Resolution

To designate the month of June 1984 as "Veterans' Preference Month".

June 30, 1984
[S.J. Res. 297]

Whereas the principle of providing preference in Federal civilian employment for veterans of the Armed Forces was first established in law in 1865 when Congress provided such a preference for Civil War veterans with service-connected disabilities;

Whereas the enactment of the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944 on June 27, 1944, was a landmark in the national policy of veterans' preference in civil service employment and has been strengthened since by law, Executive orders, and regulations providing such preference for veterans and the spouses, surviving spouses, and parents of certain veterans;

58 Stat. 387.

Whereas veterans' preference and career merit principles are inseparable and integral parts of the Federal civil service personnel system;

Whereas veterans' preference is a partial recognition of the great debt of gratitude that the Nation owes to its veterans of service in the Armed Forces; and

Whereas it is appropriate to establish the month of June 1984, the fortieth anniversary of the enactment of the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944, as Veterans' Preference Month to honor the men and women who have served the United States in the Armed Forces: Now, therefore, be it

58 Stat. 387.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the month of June 1984 is hereby designated as "Veterans' Preference Month". The President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the departments and agencies of the United States and interested organizations and groups to observe such month with appropriate programs, ceremonies, and activities.

Joint Resolution

July 2, 1984
[S.J. Res. 257]

To designate the period July 1, 1984, through July 1, 1985, as the "Year of the Ocean".

Whereas the oceans are the major source of the waters on planet

Earth providing an essential link in the chain of human existence;

Whereas the ocean environment provides us with a wealth of products and services but is increasingly subject to stress caused by population growth, economic development, placement of energy-related facilities, extraction of mineral resources and fossil fuels, transportation and navigation, waste disposal, and harvesting of living marine resources;

Whereas America is the steward of the resources of the ocean and coastal regions that border our Nation and this stewardship entails a responsibility to match our increased uses of marine resources with an increased vigilance of the well-being of the marine environment;

Whereas it is important to educate Americans as the users of ocean products and the beneficiaries of our ocean heritage, to the role the world ocean plays in our lives;

Whereas a "Year of the Ocean" will be used to expand public awareness and knowledge of the importance of the ocean and its resources; and

Whereas it is fitting and proper that "Ocean Day" be the first day of celebration during the "Year of the Ocean": Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That July 1, 1984, to July 1, 1985, be designated "Year of the Ocean", and the President is requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe such celebration with appropriate activities.

(c) The Secretary shall ensure that any guarantee authority made available, in the fiscal years ending September 30, 1984, and September 30, 1985, for credit guarantees under the Export Credit Guarantee Program (GSM-102) carried out by the Commodity Credit Corporation in excess of—

(1) the $4,000,000,000 of guarantee authority available for fiscal year ending September 30, 1984, and

(2) the level of guarantee authority contained in the President's budget for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1985, is used to further assist in the development, maintenance, and expansion of international markets for United States agricultural commodities and products, including natural fiber textiles and yarns. Priority in the allocation of such guarantee authority shall be given to credit guarantees that facilitate the financing of (i) export sales to countries that have demonstrated the greatest repayment capability under the export credit programs carried out by the Commodity Credit Corporation or (ii) export sales of commodities for which no blended credit (under which a combination of export credit guarantees under the GSM-102 program and direct export credits under the GSM-5 program is provided) will be made available.

all funds appropriated herein for El Salvador and not theretofore obligated or expended shall not thereafter be available for obligation or expenditure unless reappropriated by Congress.

SEC. 110. On Sunday, March 25, 1984, a remarkable exercise in democracy in the conduct of a free and honest election within the Republic of El Salvador took place, with approximately 70 percent participation by eligible voters despite intense guerrilla efforts to intimidate and to sabotage the election.

Since the success of the Government of El Salvador in the conduct of this election against the guerrilla efforts to disrupt and invalidate it depended both upon the courage, good spirits and determination of the Salvadoran people to freely choose their President and Vice President, and upon the ability of Salvadoran armed forces to safeguard voters and election officials against the guerrillas.

Since within 30 days of certification of the results of the March 25 election a runoff election is required under the Salvadoran Constitution and election law, since no candidate won a majority of the vote at the March 25 election.

Since the armed forces of El Salvador, unless immediately resupplied by the United States with equipment arms and ammunition which are in critically short supply, are threatened with being unable to provide the same needed protection for the runoff election, and with suffering generally a dangerously reduced capacity to safeguard the Salvadoran people against the terrorism of the guerrillas.

Therefore, the Senate finds that the policy of the United States should be to immediately provide such additional equipment, arms, and ammunition as will allow the armed forces of El Salvador to provide needed protection to the Salvadoran people both at the runoff election and in their daily lives; and ultimately to so suppress guerrilla terrorism as to make possible the revival of economic activity with El Salvador.

SEC. 113. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, organizations reporting to the Assistant Secretary of Interior for Fish and Wildlife and Parks shall enter into contracts which result in releasing or transferring any Federal employees or liquidating any equipment or materials as a result of complying with the Office of Management and Budget Circular A-76 for the 62 activities scheduled for review by the National Park Service by March 30, 1984, and the 94 activities scheduled for review by the United States Fish and Wildlife Service by September 30, 1984, only after the following conditions have been met:

(2) the organizations have had 30 days to review the bid results and to transmit recommendations to the appropriate House and Senate Committees as to which activities should be contracted; and

July 3, 1984

[S.J. Res. 59]

To authorize and request the President to designate February 27, 1986, as "Hugo LaFayette Black Day".

Whereas Hugo LaFayette Black's reverence for the Constitution of the United States and the freedoms it guarantees led him to a career of dedicated public service in the State of Alabama, the United States Senate, and the United States Supreme Court, spanning over fifty years;

Whereas Hugo LaFayette Black's courageous leadership, devotion to wisdom and scholarship, and dedication to the cause of justice brought meaning to the concept of democracy and has had a far-reaching influence on the development of American jurisprudence;

Whereas Hugo LaFayette Black stood firm and unwavering in protecting and defending our cherished constitutional rights and freedoms, and contributed greatly to the strength and vitality of our Nation;

Whereas future generations will continue to benefit from Hugo LaFayette Black's devotion to the common good and sense of compassion for all;

Whereas February 27, 1986, is the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Hugo LaFayette Black; and

Whereas it is fitting and proper to honor Hugo LaFayette Black as a defender of freedom, a patriot, and a dedicated public servant: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation designating February 27, 1986, as "Hugo LaFayette Black Day", and calling upon the people of the United States to observe such day with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

To designate August 4, 1984, as "Coast Guard Day".

July 3, 1984
[S.J. Res. 150]

Whereas the United States Coast Guard is the oldest continuous seagoing service, its history tracing back to 1790;

Whereas the United States Coast Guard has made valuable contributions to our Nation in the areas of boating safety, search and rescue, aids to navigation, merchant marine safety, environmental protection, maritime law enforcement and port safety;

Whereas the military and civilian personnel of the United States Coast Guard and its predecessors have displayed enthusiasm, excellence and courage since 1790 in serving the people of this Nation; and

Whereas the Nation relies on the readiness of the nearly one hundred thousand active duty and reserve military officers and enlisted personnel, cadets, civilian employees, and auxiliary volunteers of the United States Coast Guard to rescue victims, protect our environment, and defend our Nation if the need arises: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation designating August 4, 1984, as "Coast Guard Day", and calling upon all Federal, State and local government agencies and people of the United States to observe the day with appropriate programs, ceremonies, and activities.

[S.J. Res. 230]

To designate the week of October 7, 1984 through October 13, 1984 as "National Birds of Prey Conservation Week".

Whereas hawks, owls, and other birds of prey are vital ecological components of the wildlife communities in which they live, and are important environmental indicators of ecosystem quality;

Whereas forty of the fifty-three species of birds of prey that occur regularly in the United States have been listed by one or more State conservation agencies as endangered, extirpated, threatened, or of concern;

Whereas public attitudes regarding birds of prey are changing to one of appreciation and understanding; and

Whereas over a million Americans are birdwatchers who regularly observe hawks and other birds of prey every autumn at migration outlooks located on major raptor flyways scattered from California to Maine, and from Minnesota to Florida and Texas: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the week of October 7, 1984, through October 13, 1984, is designated as "National Birds of Prey Conservation Week", and the President of the United States is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon individuals to observe such a week by considering the importance of birds of prey in wildlife communities.

Joint Resolution

To designate the week of December 9, 1984, through December 15, 1984, as "National Drunk and Drugged Driving Awareness Week".

July 3, 1984
[S.J. Res. 303]

Whereas traffic accidents cause more violent deaths in the United States than any other cause, approximately forty-two thousand in 1983;

Whereas traffic accidents cause thousands of serious injuries in the United States each year;

Whereas more than 65 per centum of drivers killed in single vehicle collisions and over 50 per centum of all drivers fatally injured have blood alcohol concentrations above the legal limit;

Whereas the United States Surgeon General has reported that life expectancy has risen for every age group over the past seventy-five years except for Americans fifteen to twenty-four years old, whose death rate, the leading cause of which is drunk driving, is higher now than it was twenty years ago;

Whereas the total societal cost of drunk driving has been estimated at over $24,000,000,000 per year, which does not include the human suffering that can never be measured;

Whereas there are increasing reports of driving after drug use and accidents involving drivers who have used marihuana or other illegal drugs;

Whereas driving after the use of therapeutic drugs, either alone or in combination with alcohol, contrary to the advice of physician, pharmacist, or manufacturer, may create a safety hazard on the roads;

Whereas more research is needed on the effect of drugs either alone or in combination with alcohol, on driving ability and the incidence of traffic accidents;

Whereas an increased public awareness of the gravity of the problem of drugged driving may warn drug users to refrain from driving and may stimulate interest in increasing necessary research on the effect of drugs on driving ability and the incidence of traffic accidents;

Whereas the public, particularly through the work of citizens groups, is demanding a solution to the problem of drunk and drugged driving;

Whereas the Presidential Commission on Drunk Driving, appointed to heighten public awareness and stimulate the pursuit of solutions, has provided vital recommendations for remedies for the problem of drunk driving;

Whereas many States have appointed task forces to examine existing drunk driving programs and make recommendations for a renewed, comprehensive approach, and in many cases their recommendations are leading to enactment of new laws, along with stricter enforcement;

Whereas the best defense against the drunk or drugged driver is the use of safety belts and greater safety belt usage would increase the number of survivors of traffic accidents;

Whereas an increase in the public awareness of the problem of drunk and drugged driving may contribute to a change in society's attitude toward the drunk or drugged driver and help to sustain current efforts to develop comprehensive solutions at the State and local levels;

Whereas the Christmas and New Year holiday period, with more drivers on the roads and an increased number of social functions, is a particularly appropriate time to focus national attention on this critical problem;

Whereas designation of National Drunk and Drugged Driving Awareness Week in 1982 and 1983 stimulated many activities and programs by groups in both the private and public sectors aimed at curbing drunk and drugged driving in the high-risk Christmas and New Year holiday period and thereafter;

Whereas over the last three years the number of traffic fatalities over each of the three-day New Year holidays has decreased from three hundred and thirty-eight deaths in 1981, to two hundred and eighty-two deaths in 1982, to two hundred and seventy-four deaths in 1983, the lowest number since 1949; and

Whereas the activities and programs during National Drunk and Drugged Driving Awareness Week in 1982 and 1983 heightened the awareness of the American public to the danger of drunk and drugged driving and contributed to the decrease in traffic fatalities: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the week of December 9, 1984, through December 15, 1984, is designated as "National Drunk and Drugged Driving Awareness Week" and the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe that week with appropriate activities.

(2) the Department of Agriculture's second roadless area review and evaluation (RARE II) of National Forest System lands in the State of Washington and the related congressional review of such lands have identified areas which, on the basis of their landform, ecosystem, associated wildlife, and location, will help to fulfill the National Forest System's share of a quality National Wilderness Preservation System; and

Designating the week of July 1 through July 8, 1984, as "National Duck Stamp Week" and 1984 as the "Golden Anniversary Year of the Duck Stamp".

July 3, 1984
[S.J. Res. 270]

Whereas on March 16, 1934, Congress enacted the Migratory Bird Hunting Stamp Act authorizing the sale of Migratory Bird Hunting and Conservation Stamps, commonly referred to as duck stamps;

48 Stat. 451.

Whereas under that Act any person sixteen years of age or older, who hunts ducks, geese, swans, or brant is required to carry a current duck stamp, and duck stamps may also be purchased by nonhunters interested in conservation;

Whereas the funds generated from the sale of duck stamps under that Act are placed in a migratory bird conservation fund to be used for the acquisition of migratory bird refuge and waterfowl production areas;

Whereas the Migratory Bird Hunting Stamp Act has created a continuing source of funds for waterfowl habitat acquisition and restoration;

Whereas waterfowl hunters and others interested in the conservation of our Nation's wildlife resources have contributed more than $270,000,000 toward the acquisition of three million five hundred thousand acres of waterfowl habitat through the purchase of duck stamps;

Whereas an estimated four hundred fifty thousand acres of wetland habitat continue to disappear each year under the pressure of human development;

Whereas wetlands are vital not only for waterfowl, but also for a multitude of wildlife species, commercial and recreational fisheries, water purification, groundwater recharge, and flood control;

Whereas the current goal of the Fish and Wildlife Service is to preserve another one million six hundred thousand acres of key wetland habitat by 1986 to help maintain waterfowl populations; and

Whereas celebration of the "Golden Anniversary Year of the Duck Stamp" and "National Duck Stamp Week" will serve to increase awareness of the significant contribution a duck stamp purchaser makes to the conservation of wetland resources, and to encourage participation of other concerned Americans: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the week of July 1 through July 8, 1984, is hereby designated as "National Duck Stamp Week" and that 1984 is designated as the "Golden Anniversary Year of the Duck Stamp". The President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation—

(1) commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the Migratory Bird Hunting Stamp Act;

(2) commending the many American sportsmen and conservationists who have played such an important part in the preservation of our Nation's ducks and geese through the purchase of the duck stamp;

(3) commemorating the efforts of the United States Fish and Wildlife Service to conserve wetland habitat;

(4) highlighting the annual loss of thousands of acres of wetlands that threatens the valuable waterfowl and other natural resources that depend upon this habitat; and

(5) calling upon the people of the United States to observe such year and such week and to participate in the duck stamp program.

Joint Resolution

July 9, 1984
[S.J. Res. 238]

To designate the week beginning November 19, 1984, as "National Adoption Week".

Whereas the week of November 19 has been privately commemorated as National Adoption Week for the past nine years;

Whereas we in Congress recognize the essential value of belonging to a secure, loving, permanent family as every child's basic right; Whereas approximately one hundred thousand children who have special needs—school age, in sibling groups, members of minorities or children with physical, mental and emotional handicaps—are now in foster care or institutions financed at public expense and are legally free for adoption;

Whereas the adoption by capable parents of these institutionalized or foster care children into permanent, adoptive homes would insure the opportunity for their continued happiness and long-range well-being;

Whereas public and private barriers inhibiting the placement of these special needs children must be reviewed and removed where possible to assure these children's adoption;

Whereas the public and prospective parents must be informed of the availability of adoptable children;

Whereas a variety of media, agencies, adoptive parent and advocacy groups, civic and church groups, businesses and industries will feature publicity and information to heighten community awareness of the crucial needs of waiting children; and

Whereas the recognition of Thanksgiving week as National Adoption Week is in the best interest of adoptable children and the public in general: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the week of November 19 through November 25, 1984, hereby is designated "National Adoption Week", and the President of the United States is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe such week with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

(b) Permits renewed under subsection (a) of this section shall expire upon the death of the permittee or within thirty years of the date of enactment of this Act, whichever occurs later: Provided,

July 9, 1984
[H.J. Res. 555]

To designate July 20, 1984, as "Space Exploration Day".

Whereas on July 20, 1969, the people of the World were brought closer together by the first manned exploration of the Moon; Whereas the purpose of the United States space program is the peaceful exploration of space for the benefit of all mankind; Whereas the United States space program has provided scientific and technological benefits affecting many areas of concern to mankind;

Whereas the United States space program, through the Project Apollo, Viking and Voyager Missions to the planets, the space shuttle and other space efforts, has provided our Nation with scientific and technological leadership in space;

Whereas the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, the United States aerospace industry and educational institutions throughout the Nation contribute much research and development to the United States space program, and to the strength of the Nation's economy;

Whereas the space program reflects the technological skill of the highest order and the best in the American character—sacrifice, ingenuity, and our unrelenting spirit of adventure;

Whereas the spirit that put man on the Moon may be applied to all noble pursuits involving peace, brotherhood, courage, unity of the human spirit and the exploration of new frontiers; and

Whereas the human race will continue to explore space for the benefit of future generations: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That July 20, 1984, is hereby designated as "Space Exploration Day", a nonpaid commemorative holiday. To designate the week beginning September 2, 1984, as "National School-Age Child Care Awareness Week".

July 9, 1984

[H.J. Res. 544]

Whereas more than half of the children in the United States are in families in which both parents are in the work force;

Whereas more than one in five children in the United States are in a one-parent family;

Whereas changes in the composition of American families and the American work force have resulted in an increased demand for child care for children of all ages;

Whereas the demand for child care for school-age children has increased at a greater rate than the availability of school-age child care;

Whereas estimates show that millions of school-age children between the ages of six and thirteen, often referred to as latchkey children, may return alone after school to an empty house or in the supervision of a slightly older brother or sister;

Whereas research studies have indicated that children in self and sibling care run greater physical and psychological risks, including accidents and feelings of fear and loneliness, than children who are cared for by an adult;

Whereas the Congress has begun to examine the issue of child care and the role of Federal and State government, the private sector, and parents in providing child care;

Whereas the parents, communities, employers, and agencies serving youth that have recognized the shortage of adequate and affordable school-age child care have developed after school programs for children in their communities; and

Whereas many more parents, communities, employers, and agencies serving youth need to address the problems facing these children and to maximize the use of State and Federal resources in collaboration with these efforts: Now, therefore, be it

To commemorate the one hundredth anniversary of the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

July 9, 1984

[S.J. Res. 278]

Whereas legislation was enacted on June 27, 1884, to establish a bureau to “collect information upon the subject of labor, its relation to capital, the hours of labor, and the earnings of laboring men and women, and the means of promoting their material, social, intellectual, and moral prosperity”;

Whereas the Bureau of Labor Statistics has completed a century of service to government, business, labor, and the public by producing indispensable data and special studies on prices, employment and unemployment, productivity, wages and other compensation, economic growth, industrial relations, and occupational safety and health;

Whereas many public programs and private transactions are dependent today on the quality of such Bureau statistics as the unemployment rate and the Consumer Price Index which play essential roles in the allocation of Federal funds and the adjustment of pensions, welfare payments, private contracts, and other payments to offset the impact of inflation;

Whereas the Bureau pursues these responsibilities with absolute integrity and has a reputation for being unfailingly responsive to the need for new types of information and indexes of change;

Whereas the Bureau has earned an international reputation as a leader in economic and social statistics;

Whereas the Bureau meets the public need for timely and accurate information by publishing data in the most appropriate printed form, including press releases, periodicals, bulletins, and special reports, and by making data available through microfiche and new electronic services;

Whereas the Public Law 480 program (also known as the food for peace program) has received strong and bipartisan support from every President and Congress during the past thirty years as a versatile tool to use the abundant agricultural productivity of the United States to combat hunger and malnutrition abroad, expand export markets for United States agricultural commodities, encourage economic development in developing countries, and promote in other ways the foreign policy of the United States; Whereas over three hundred million tons of agricultural commodities and products thereof valued at about $34,000,000,000 have been distributed to more than one hundred and fifty countries under the Public Law 480 program since its inception, substantially reducing world hunger and improving nutritional standards;

Whereas the Public Law 480 program has served as an example to other nations and encouraged them also to help meet food needs abroad by making available agricultural surpluses or cash donations for such purposes; and

Whereas America's neighborhoods contain the ethnic, social, and economic relationships which are fundamental to a strong and diverse nation;

Whereas, when the physical structure of a neighborhood deteriorates, its economic and social structures also deteriorate, causing great harm to the homes, businesses, and residents of the neighborhood;

Whereas the reversal of such deterioration is essential to the strength of America's families, neighborhoods, and businesses;

Such time periods and such timetable may be modified by the court, for cause, in accordance with subsection (f) of this section.

“(2) neither the court nor the trustee may delay, due to the appeal of such order, any proceeding in the case in which such order is issued.

“(B) the commencement of a case under this title; or “(D) that assumption or assignment of such lease will not disrupt any tenant mix or balance in such shopping center.

“(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, if there has been a default in an unexpired lease of the debtor, other than a default of a kind specified in paragraph (2) of this subsection, the trustee may not require a lessor to provide services or supplies incidental to such lease before assumption of such lease unless the lessor is compensated under the terms of such lease for any services and supplies provided under such lease before assumption of such lease.

“(B) such party does not consent to such assumption or assignment; or

The court may extend, for cause, the time for performance of any such obligation that arises within 60 days after the date of the order for relief, but the time for performance shall not be extended beyond such 60-day period. This subsection shall not be deemed to affect the trustee's obligations under the provisions of subsection (b) or (f) of this section. Acceptance of any such performance does not constitute waiver or relinquishment of the lessor's rights under such lease or under this title.

Ante, p. 361.

“(4) Notwithstanding paragraphs (1) and (2), in a case under any chapter of this title, if the trustee does not assume or reject an unexpired lease of nonresidential real property under which the debtor is the lessee within 60 days after the date of the order for relief, or within such additional time as the court, for cause, within such 60-day period, fixes, then such lease is deemed rejected, and the trustee shall immediately surrender such nonresidential real property to the lessor.”

SEC. 541. (a) Title 11 of the United States Code is amended by adding after section 1112 the following new section:

11 USC 1113.

“§ 1113. Rejection of collective bargaining agreements

11 USC 1161.
45 USC 151.

“(a) The debtor in possession, or the trustee if one has been appointed under the provisions of this chapter, other than a trustee in a case covered by subchapter IV of this chapter and by title I of the Railway Labor Act, may assume or reject a collective bargaining agreement only in accordance with the provisions of this section.

“(b)(1) Subsequent to filing a petition and prior to filing an application seeking rejection of a collective bargaining agreement, the debtor in possession or trustee (hereinafter in this section ‘trustee’ shall include a debtor in possession), shall—

“(A) make a proposal to the authorized representative of the employees covered by such agreement, based on the most complete and reliable information available at the time of such proposal, which provides for those necessary modifications in the employees benefits and protections that are necessary to permit the reorganization of the debtor and assures that all creditors, the debtor and all of the affected parties are treated fairly and equitably; and

“(B) provide, subject to subsection (d)(3), the representative of the employees with such relevant information as is necessary to evaluate the proposal.

“(2) During the period beginning on the date of the making of a proposal provided for in paragraph (1) and ending on the date of the hearing provided for in subsection (d)(1), the trustee shall meet, at reasonable times, with the authorized representative to confer in good faith in attempting to reach mutually satisfactory modifications of such agreement.

“(c) The court shall approve an application for rejection of a collective bargaining agreement only if the court finds that—

“(1) the trustee has, prior to the hearing, made a proposal that fulfills the requirements of subsection (b)(1);

“(2) the authorized representative of the employees has refused to accept such proposal without good cause; and

“(3) the balance of the equities clearly favors rejection of such agreement.

“(d)(1) Upon the filing of an application for rejection the court shall schedule a hearing to be held not later than fourteen days after the date of the filing of such application. All interested parties may appear and be heard at such hearing. Adequate notice shall be provided to such parties at least ten days before the date of such hearing. The court may extend the time for the commencement of such hearing for a period not exceeding seven days where the circumstances of the case, and the interests of justice require such extension, or for additional periods of time to which the trustee and representative agree.

“(2) The court shall rule on such application for rejection within thirty days after the date of the commencement of the hearing. In the interests of justice, the court may extend such time for ruling for such additional period as the trustee and the employees’ representative may agree to. If the court does not rule on such application within thirty days after the date of the commencement of the hearing, or within such additional time as the trustee and the employees’ representative may agree to, the trustee may terminate or alter any provisions of the collective bargaining agreement pending the ruling of the court on such application.

“(3) The court may enter such protective orders, consistent with the need of the authorized representative of the employee to evaluate the trustee’s proposal and the application for rejection, as may be necessary to prevent disclosure of information provided to such representative where such disclosure could compromise the position of the debtor with respect to its competitors in the industry in which it is engaged.

Confidentiality.

“(e) If during a period when the collective bargaining agreement continues in effect, and if essential to the continuation of the debtor’s business, or in order to avoid irreparable damage to the estate, the court, after notice and a hearing, may authorize the trustee to implement interim changes in the terms, conditions, wages, benefits, or work rules provided by a collective bargaining agreement. Any hearing under this paragraph shall be scheduled in accordance with the needs of the trustee. The implementation of such interim changes shall not render the application for rejection moot.

“(f) No provision of this title shall be construed to permit a trustee to unilaterally terminate or alter any provisions of a collective bargaining agreement prior to compliance with the provisions of this section.”

(b) The table of sections for chapter 11 of title 11, United States Code, is amended by inserting after the item relating to section 1112 the following new item:

“1113. Rejection of collective bargaining agreements.”

(c) The amendments made by this section shall become effective upon the date of enactment of this Act; provided that this section shall not apply to cases filed under title 11 of the United States Code which were commenced prior to the date of enactment of this section.

July 11, 1984
[H.J. Res. 567]

Whereas the Great Lakes have long been recognized as a valuable transportation resource by Americans and Canadians;

Whereas it was not until the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway in 1959 that mid-continent North America was able to fully enjoy the economies and efficiencies inherent in deep-draft, waterborne commerce;

Whereas the St. Lawrence Seaway is a symbol of the thriving climate of constructive cooperation which exists between the United States and Canada;

Whereas, since the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway in 1959, more than one billion metric tons of cargo have moved through the Seaway to the far reaches of the globe;

Whereas June 27, 1984, will mark the 25th anniversary of the dedication of the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway to deep-draft navigation at the Dwight D. Eisenhower Lock, Massena, New York; and

Whereas it is appropriate to recognize, acknowledge, and proclaim the importance of the St. Lawrence Seaway to the economic well-being of mid-continent North America and the significance of the St. Lawrence Seaway-Great Lakes navigation system in the overall transportation network of the United States: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That—

(1) 1984 is designated as the “Year of the St. Lawrence Seaway”, and

(1) the Black Canyon of the Gunnison National Monument (hereafter in this Act referred to as the “Monument”) is an integral and widely recognized part of the national park system, and possesses outstanding recreational opportunities and natural characteristics of high value which, if properly managed, contribute as an enduring resource for the benefit of the American people;

(2) the preservation of these valuable resources is significantly threatened by increased development activity and the subdivision of adjacent private lands;

(3) the Monument does not have a boundary established by legislation; and

(4) it is in the best interest of the United States to establish the boundary of the Monument so as to encompass the lands described as being within the Monument and those private lands posing the most immediate threat to the visual quality of the area.

(b) The purpose of this Act is to establish a boundary for the Monument in order to promote, perpetuate, and preserve the character of the land and to preserve scenic and historic resources.

SEC. 2. (a) The boundary of the Monument shall be as generally depicted on the map entitled “Boundary Map, Black Canyon of the Gunnison National Monument”, dated February 1984, and numbered 144-80,010-B, which shall be on file and available for public inspection in the office of the Director, National Park Service, Department of the Interior and in the office of the Park Superintendent, Black Canyon of the Gunnison National Monument.

Such legal description shall have the same force and effect as if included in this Act, except that corrections of clerical and typographical errors in such legal description (and in the map referred to in subsection (a)) may be made. Such legal descriptions shall be on file and available for public inspection in the office of the Director, National Park Service, Department of the Interior.

SEC. 3. (a) The Secretary is authorized to acquire lands or interests therein within the boundary of the Monument by donation, exchange, or purchase with donated or appropriated funds. The Secretary may acquire less than fee interests in such lands in cases where such interest will adequately protect the visual quality, natural, or cultural resources of the Monument: Provided, That the Secretary shall not acquire lands in fee interest unless the owner of such land concurs with such action.

(b) All lands under the administrative jurisdiction of the Secretary within the boundary of the Monument as of the date of enactment of this Act, shall be transferred to the administrative jurisdiction of the National Park Service to be administered as a part of the Monument.

(c) Upon request by a landowner, and if determined by the Secretary that such action would not be detrimental to the visual resources of the Monument, the Secretary shall permit as a condition of the acquisition of any less than fee interest in land under this Act—

(1) livestock grazing to continue at the levels and locations customarily exercised by the owner of such land prior to August 1, 1983, and

(2) commonly accepted operation and maintenance practices supporting livestock grazing to continue to be allowed, including the maintenance of domestic, livestock and agricultural water conveyance systems, and the construction and maintenance of required fencing and stock ponds.

(d) Subject to valid existing rights, federally owned lands and interests therein within the Monument are withdrawn from entry or appropriation under the mining laws of the United States, from the operation of the mineral leasing laws of the United States, from operation of the Geothermal Steam Act of 1970, and from disposition under the public land laws.

SEC. 4. The Secretary shall administer the Monument in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the provisions of law generally applicable to units of the National Park System including the Acts of August 25, 1916 (39 Stat. 535), and August 21, 1935 (49 Stat. 666).

“ARTICLE IV—EFFECTIVE DATE

“This compact shall become effective upon the adoption of the compact into law by two or more of the participating states. Thereafter, it shall enter into force and effect as to any other participating state upon the enactment thereof by such state.

“This compact shall continue in force with respect to a participating state and remain binding upon such state until six months after such state has given notice to each other participating state of the repeal thereof. Such withdrawal shall not be construed to relieve any participating state from any obligation incurred prior to the end of the state’s participation in the compact as provided herein.

“ARTICLE V—CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

“This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state or of the United States, or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any participating state, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.”.

FINDINGS

SEC. 202. The Congress finds and declares that—

Congress.
42 USC 2451
note.

(1) the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, the lead civilian space agency, as established in the National Aeronautics and Space Act of 1958, as amended, has conducted a space program that has been an unparalleled success, providing significant economic, social, scientific, and national security benefits, and helping to maintain international stability and good will;

42 USC 2451
note.

(2) the National Aeronautics and Space Act of 1958, as amended (42 U.S.C. 2451 et seq.), has provided the policy framework for achieving this success, and continues to be a sound statutory basis for national efforts in space;

(3) the United States is entering a new era of international competition and cooperation in space, and therefore this Nation must strengthen the commitment of its public and private technical, financial, and institutional resources, so that the United States will not lose its leadership position during this decade;

(4) while there continues to be a crucial Government role in space science, advanced research and development, provision of public goods and services and coordination of national and international efforts, advances in applications of space technology have raised many issues regarding public and private sector roles and relationships in technology development, applications, and marketing;

(5) the private sector will continue to evolve as a major participant in the utilization of the space environment;

(6) the Nation is committed to a permanently manned space station in low Earth orbit, and future national efforts in space will benefit from the presence of such a station;

(7) the separation of the civilian and military space programs is essential to ensure the continued health and vitality of both; and

(8) the identification of long range goals and policy options for the United States civilian space program through a high level, representational public forum will assist the President and Congress in formulating future policies for the United States civilian space program.

98th Congress

An Act

To establish a system to promote the use of land remote-sensing satellite data, and for other purposes.

July 17, 1984
[H.R. 5155]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the "Land Remote-Sensing Commercialization Act of 1984".

Land Remote-Sensing Commercialization Act of 1984. Communications and telecommunications. 15 USC 4201 note.

TITLE I—DECLARATION OF FINDINGS, PURPOSES, AND POLICIES

FINDINGS

SEC. 101. The Congress finds and declares that—

Congress.
15 USC 4201.

(1) the continuous civilian collection and utilization of land remote-sensing data from space are of major benefit in managing the Earth's natural resources and in planning and conducting many other activities of economic importance;

(2) the Federal Government's experimental Landsat system has established the United States as the world leader in land remote-sensing technology;

Landsat system.

(3) the national interest of the United States lies in maintaining international leadership in civil remote sensing and in broadly promoting the beneficial use of remote-sensing data;

(4) land remote sensing by the Government or private parties of the United States affects international commitments and policies and national security concerns of the United States;

Defense and national security.

(5) the broadest and most beneficial use of land remote-sensing data will result from maintaining a policy of nondiscriminatory access to data;

(6) competitive, market-driven private sector involvement in land remote sensing is in the national interest of the United States;

(7) use of land remote-sensing data has been inhibited by slow market development and by the lack of assurance of data continuity;

(8) the private sector, and in particular the "value-added" industry, is best suited to develop land remote-sensing data markets;

(9) there is doubt that the private sector alone can currently develop a total land remote-sensing system because of the high risk and large capital expenditure involved;

(10) cooperation between the Federal Government and private industry can help assure both data continuity and United States leadership;

(11) the time is now appropriate to initiate such cooperation with phased transition to a fully commercial system;

(12) such cooperation should be structured to involve the minimum practicable amount of support and regulation by the Federal Government and the maximum practicable amount of competition by the private sector, while assuring continuous availability to the Federal Government of land remote-sensing data;

(13) certain Government oversight must be maintained to assure that private sector activities are in the national interest and that the international commitments and policies of the United States are honored; and

(14) there is no compelling reason to commercialize meteorological satellites at this time.

PURPOSES

15 USC 4202.

SEC. 102. The purposes of this Act are to—

(1) guide the Federal Government in achieving proper involvement of the private sector by providing a framework for phased commercialization of land remote sensing and by assuring continuous data availability to the Federal Government;

Defense and national security.

(2) maintain the United States worldwide leadership in civil remote sensing, preserve its national security, and fulfill its international obligations;

(3) minimize the duration and amount of further Federal investment necessary to assure data continuity while achieving commercialization of civil land remote sensing;

(4) provide for a comprehensive civilian program of research, development, and demonstration to enhance both the United States capabilities for remote sensing from space and the application and utilization of such capabilities; and

(5) prohibit commercialization of meteorological satellites at this time.

SEC. 103. (a) It shall be the policy of the United States to preserve its right to acquire and disseminate unenhanced remote-sensing data.

(b) It shall be the policy of the United States that civilian unenhanced remote-sensing data be made available to all potential users on a nondiscriminatory basis and in a manner consistent with applicable antitrust laws.

Defense and
security.

(c) It shall be the policy of the United States both to commercialize those remote-sensing space systems that properly lend themselves to private sector operation and to avoid competition by the Government with such commercial operations, while continuing to preserve our national security, to honor our international obligations, and to retain in the Government those remote-sensing functions that are essentially of a public service nature.

DEFINITIONS

15 USC 4204.

SEC. 104. For purposes of this Act:

(1) The term "Landsat system" means Landsats 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5, and any related ground equipment, systems, and facilities, and any successor civil land remote-sensing space systems operated by the United States Government prior to the commencement of the six-year period described in title III.

(2) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of Commerce.

(3)(A) The term “nondiscriminatory basis” means without preference, bias, or any other special arrangement (except on the basis of national security concerns pursuant to section 607) regarding delivery, format, financing, or technical considerations which would favor one buyer or class of buyers over another.

(B) The sale of data is made on a nondiscriminatory basis only if (i) any offer to sell or deliver data is published in advance in such manner as will ensure that the offer is equally available to all prospective buyers; (ii) the system operator has not established or changed any price, policy, procedure, or other term or condition in a manner which gives one buyer or class of buyer de facto favored access to data; (iii) the system operator does not make unenhanced data available to any purchaser on an exclusive basis; and (iv) in a case where a system operator offers volume discounts, such discounts are no greater than the demonstrable reductions in the cost of volume sales. The sale of data on a nondiscriminatory basis does not preclude the system operator from offering discounts other than volume discounts to the extent that such discounts are consistent with the provisions of this paragraph.

(C) The sale of data on a nondiscriminatory basis does not require (i) that a system operator disclose names of buyers or their purchases; (ii) that a system operator maintain all, or any particular subset of, data in a working inventory; or (iii) that a system operator expend equal effort in developing all segments of a market.

(4) The term “unenhanced data” means unprocessed or minimally processed signals or film products collected from civil remote-sensing space systems. Such minimal processing may include rectification of distortions, registration with respect to features of the Earth, and calibration of spectral response. Such minimal processing does not include conclusions, manipulations, or calculations derived from such signals or film products or combination of the signals or film products with other data or information.

(5) The term “system operator” means a contractor under title II or title III or a license holder under title IV.

TITLE II—OPERATION AND DATA MARKETING OF LANDSAT SYSTEM

OPERATION

SEC. 201. (a) The Secretary shall be responsible for—

(1) the Landsat system, including the orbit, operation, and disposition of Landsats 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5; and

(2) provision of data to foreign ground stations under the terms of agreements between the United States Government and nations that operate such ground stations which are in force on the date of commencement of the contract awarded pursuant to this title.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not affect the Secretary's authority to contract for the operation of part or all of the Landsat system, so long as the United States Government retains—

(1) ownership of such system;

(2) ownership of the unenhanced data; and

15 USC 4211.

(3) authority to make decisions concerning operation of the system.

CONTRACT FOR MARKETING OF UNENHANCED DATA

(a) In accordance with the requirements of this title, the Secretary, by means of a competitive process and to the extent provided in advance by appropriation Acts, shall contract with a United States private sector party (as defined by the Secretary) for the marketing of unenhanced data collected by the Landsat system. Any such contract—

(1) shall provide that the contractor set the prices of unenhanced data;

(2) may provide for financial arrangements between the Secretary and the contractor including fees for operating the system, payments by the contractor as an initial fee or as a percentage of sales receipts, or other such considerations;

As soon as practicable but not later than thirty days after so certifying and reporting, the Secretary shall reopen the competitive process. The period for the subsequent competitive process shall not exceed one hundred and twenty days. If, after such subsequent competitive process, the Secretary receives no proposal which is acceptable under the provisions of this title, the Secretary shall so certify and fully report such finding to the Congress. In the event that no acceptable proposal is received, the Secretary shall continue to market data from the Landsat system.
